The Nation-State in Question T.V. Paul, G. John Ikenberry, John A. Hall, 2020-11-10 Has globalization forever undermined the state as the mighty guarantor of public welfare and security In the 1990s the prevailing and even hopeful view was that it had The euphoria did not last long Today the return of the state is increasingly being discussed as a desirable reality This book is the first to bring together a group of prominent scholars from comparative politics international relations and sociology to systematically reassess through a historical lens that moves beyond the standard focus on the West state society relations and state power at the dawn of the twenty first century The contributors examine the sources and forms of state power in light of a range of welfare and security needs in order to tell us what states can do today They assess the extent to which international social forces affect states and the capacity of states to adapt in specific issue areas Their striking conclusion is that states have continued to be pivotal in diverse areas such as nationalism national security multiculturalism taxation and industrial relations Offering rich insights on the changing contours of state power The Nation State in Question will be of interest to social scientists students and policymakers alike John Hall's introduction is followed by chapters by Peter Baldwin John Campbell Francesco Duina Grzegorz Ekiert Jeffrey Herbst Christopher Hood Anatoly Khazanov Brendan O Leary T V Paul Bernard Yack Rudra Sil and Minxin Pei The conclusion is by John Ikenberry

Corruption, Social Sciences and the Law Jane Ellis, 2019-04-25 The problem of corruption however described dates back thousands of years Professionals working in areas such as development studies economics and political studies were the first to most actively analyse and publish on the topic of corruption and its negative impacts on economies societies and politics There was at that time minimal literature available on corruption and the law The literature and discussion on bribery and corruption as well as on the negative impact of each and what is required to address them particularly in the legal context are now considerable Corruption and anti corruption are multifaceted and multi disciplinary The focus now on the law and compliance and perhaps commercial incentives is relatively easy However corruption anti corruption and the motivations for them are complex If we continue to discuss debate engage address corruption and anti corruption in our own disciplinary silos we are unlikely to significantly progress the fight against corruption What do terms such as culture of integrity demand accountability transparency and accountability and ethical corporate culture dominating the anti corruption discourse mean if anything in other disciplines If they are meaningless what approach would practitioners in those other disciplines suggest be adopted to address corruption What has their experience been in the field How can the work of each discipline contribute to the work of whole and as such improve our work in and understanding of anti corruption This book seeks to answer these questions and to understand the phenomenon more comprehensively It will be of value to researchers academics lawyers legislators and students in the fields of law anthropology sociology international affairs and business

Guardians of Finance James R. Barth, Gerard Caprio, Jr., Ross Levine,2014-08-29 How the unaccountable unmonitorable and unchecked actions of regulators precipitated the global financial crisis and how to reform the system The recent financial crisis was an accident a perfect storm fueled by an unforeseeable confluence of events that unfortunately combined to bring down the global financial systems Or at least this is the story told and retold by a chorus of luminaries that includes Timothy Geithner Henry Paulson Robert Rubin Ben Bernanke and Alan Greenspan In Guardians of Finance economists James Barth Gerard Caprio and Ross Levine argue that the financial meltdown of 2007 to 2009 was no accident it was negligent homicide They show that senior regulatory officials around the world knew or should have known that their policies were destabilizing the global financial system and yet chose not to act until the crisis had fully emerged Barth Caprio and Levine propose a reform to counter this systemic failure the establishment of a Sentinel to provide an informed expert and independent assessment of financial regulation Its sole power would be to demand information and to evaluate it from the perspective of the public rather than that of the financial industry the regulators or politicians The American Economic Review ,2004 OECD Economic Surveys ,2004 Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics 2004 François Bourguignon,Boris Pleskovic,2004 This publication contains selected papers from the 15th annual conference on international development issues held in Bangalore in May 2003 the first such conference to be held in a developing country The theme of the conference was accelerating development focusing on four key themes fostering entrepreneurship innovation and growth challenges of development in lagging regions participation and inclusion and scaling up and evaluation as well as an examination of development issues relevant to India such as infrastructure development Gadja Mada International Journal of Business ,2013 Making Decentralization Work Ed Connerley,Kent Eaton,Paul J. Smoke,2010 The authors of this volume sift through the accumulating evidence to assess how well decentralization has fared Focusing on consequences rather than causes their goal is to inform future interventions in support of decentralized governance by showcasing some of the important trade offs that it has generated so far Business Ethics Michael Boylan,2001 An introduction employing a worldview approach to the ethical issues that arise in the business world The third title in the Basic Ethics in Action series Business Ethics helps readers come to terms with their own ethical aesthetic and religious values and subsequently react in a way that reflects those values Covers all issues of professional practices with regard to competition advertising information technology working conditions and affirmative action gender issues government regulation and the international marketplace For professionals or others interested in defining understanding and developing appropriate ethical standards in the workplace Taxability and State Support of Economic Activity Scott Gerald Gehlbach,2003 A New Capitalist Order Hilary Appel,2004 Examines why privatization was so popular immediately after the fall of communism and why it has failed in its intended goals of improving the economies of postcommunist countries Working Paper Series ,2003 Economic Papers ,1981 Distance to Frontier, Selection, and Economic Growth Daron Acemoglu,Philippe Aghion,Fabrizio Zilibotti,2002 We analyze an economy where managers engage both in the adoption of technologies from the world frontier and in innovation activities The selection of high skill managers is more important for innovation activities As the economy approaches the technology frontier selection becomes more important As a result countries at early stages of development pursue an investment based strategy with long term relationships high average size and age of firms large average investments but little selection Closer to the world technology frontier there is a switch to an innovation based strategy with short term relationships younger firms less investment and better selection of managers We show that relatively backward economies may switch out of the investment based strategy too soon so certain economic institutions and policies such as limits on product market competition or investment subsidies that encourage the investment based strategy may be beneficial However societies that cannot switch out of the investment based strategy fail to converge to the world technology frontier Non convergence traps are more likely when policies and institutions are endogenized enabling beneficiaries of existing policies to bribe politicians to maintain these policies Keywords appropriate institutions convergence economic growth innovation imitation political economy of growth selection technical change traps JEL Classifications O31 O33 O38 O40 L16
