In the Shadow of the Great War Kirsty Bennett,Imogen Middleton,Michael Page,Juliet Warren,2019-10-07 The military toll of World War I is widely known millions of Britons were mobilised many thousands killed or wounded and the landscape of British society changed forever But how was the conflict experienced by the people of Surrey on the home front Surrey Heritage s project Surrey in the Great War A County Remembers has over the four year centenary commemoration explored the wartime stories of Surrey s people and places The project s discoveries are here captured through text case studies and images This book chronicles the mobilisation of Surrey men the training of foreign troops in the county objection to military service defence against invasion voluntary work and fundraising the experiences of women and children shortages industrial supply to the armed forces and the commemoration of Surrey s dead Drawing heavily on the rich archives of Surrey Heritage it is an engaging exploration of a county in the shadow of the first globalised war between industrialised nations    The Great Battles of History Colonel Jean-Lambert-Alphonse Colin,2012-05-01 Colonel Jean Colin was the head of the historical section of the French General Staff for many years He authored a number of books on the military history of the French Revolution wars of Napoleon and the great man himself He also oversaw the publications of many more in his position as the head of the historical section in the latter part of the 19th into the 20th century as part of a further well spring of military literature printed in the wake of the epic defeat of the French by the Prussians in 1870 71 In this volume translated by Spenser Wilkinson then Chichele Professor of Military History of Oxford he covers in an elegant yet concise style 13 of the greatest battles of European history As he himself points out he cannot cover all important battles of them in one tome those covered are Marathon Arbela Cannae Zama Pharsalia Bouvines Rocroi Valmy Jena Waterloo Gravelotte Mukden and Lule Burgas There is a slight bias in terms of the extent of coverage in favour of the more recent battles over the more ancient ones but the book doesn t suffer for it the expert commentary of each is very illuminating Author Colonel Jean Lambert Alphonse Colin 1864 1917 Translator Spenser Wilkinson 1853 1937 Illustrations 28 maps and plans    British battles on land and sea James Grant,1899 lasting 11 years Alexander traveled thousands of miles through deserts plains and forests fought huge battles and besieged many cities to become the master of a massive empire stretching from Greece to India He died prematurely at the age of just 33 and no man could hold together the empire he had created A god in his lifetime his name is still world famous millennia after his death This book examines Alexander s campaigns in detail and his victories and the tactics that ensured them are explained and described with the help of maps illustrations and reconstructions to bring the epic career of one of the ancient civilization s greatest generals to life Morte Darthur Sir Thomas Malory's Book of King Arthur and of His Noble Knights of the Round Table by Edward Strachey Thomas Malory,1870 *Germany, by S. The Great Battles of the Great War (Classic Reprint) ,2015-07-03 Excerpt from The Great Battles of the Great War It is impossible to over estimate the service rendered to Europe by little Belgium in holding up for several days the head waters of the vast and menacing tide of the German invasion Rapidity of action is the great German asset said the German Imperial Chancellor to our Ambassador in Berlin We owe it to Belgian courage and tenacity that that asset was seriously impaired This small State which had no quarrel with any one and only desired to live at peace with its neighbours was suddenly exposed to a cruel ordeal Two days before the receipt of the German ultimatum the Belgian Government was informed by the German Minister in Brussels that Germany would respect the neutrality of Belgium Two hours before handing in the ultimatum on that memorable Sunday evening Germany s accredited representative repeated his assurance Then suddenly Belgium was confronted with a peremptory demand for free passage through her territory for the Kaiser s legions If in her weakness she had given permission who could have blamed her But with sublime heroism of soul Belgium declined though well knowing the risk and then flung herself with splendid intrepidity athwart the path of the Teutonic host She has suffered terribly by her heroic resistance Her whole national life has come to a standstill Her fields tilled by a frugal hard working peasantry have been laid waste her prosperous industries are stricken with paralysis About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Royal Windsor history readers Thomas Nelson & Sons,1897 Hell-Bent Douglas Newton,2014-07-28 Most histories of Australia s Great War rush their readers into the trenches This history is very different For the first time it examines events closely even hour by hour in both Britain and Australia during the last days of peace in July August 1914 London s choice for war was a very close run thing At the height of the diplomatic crisis leading to war it looked very much like Britain would choose neutrality Only very late in the evening of Tuesday 4 August did a small clique in the British cabinet finally engineer a declaration of war against Germany Meanwhile Australia's political leaders deep in the throes of a federal election campaign competed with each other in a love of empire auction They leapt ahead of events in London At the height of the diplomatic crisis they offered to transfer the brand new Royal Australian Navy to the British Admiralty Most importantly on Monday 3 August an inner group of the Australian cabinet egged on by the governor general offered an expeditionary force of 20 000 men to serve anywhere for any objective under British command and with the whole cost to be borne by Australia some forty hours before the British cabinet made up its mind Australia's leaders thereby lost the chance to set limits to weigh objectives or to insist upon consultation They needlessly exposed Australian soldiers and their families to the full horror of the mechanised slaughter that was to come They were hell bent and they got there      The
