The Great Teams Of Baseball:

Phil Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Great Teams: the 1931 Homestead Grays, Volume I Phil S.

Dixon, 2009-10-31 The Greatest Baseball team of all time easily describes the 1931 Homestead Grays. They remain a team never to be forgotten, a team that rates with the greatest teams in all of baseball history. Organized in 1910, baseball's Homestead Grays of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, an exclusively African American team, held claim to a regional championship and also a legitimate claim to baseball's World Championship. The Grays' well-known leader was Hall of Famer Cumberland Posey. His 1931 Grays featured, among others, Hall of Fame third baseman Jud Wilson, Hall of Fame infielder Oscar Charleston, a Hall of Fame catcher in Josh Gibson, and two Hall of Fame pitchers in Willie Foster and Joseph "Smokey Joe" Williams, a total of five legendary players. Paced by young Josh Gibson, age 18, and the most powerful home run hitter in baseball, Posey's 1931 Homestead Grays finished with a magnificent 143-29-2 record. This is their story told here for the first time. Included within the text are written accounts for every game from the Homestead Grays' entire 1931 schedule of nearly 175 contests, with scores, attendance figures, and player biographies. The work includes scores and locations on more than 300 additional games played by the Kansas City Monarchs, Hilldale, Baltimore's Black Sox, the Cuban House of David, New York's Harlem Stars, and other African American teams in operation during that same 1931 season. The comparative scores and their related histories are a resourceful and entertaining aid for further analysis and assessment on the participation of African American athletes in baseball as best represented from the perspective of a single championship season. Phil S. Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Great Teams: The 1910 Chicago Leland Giants Volume II

Phil S. Dixon, 2023-12-06 A Galaxy of Stars best describes Andrew Rube Foster's 1910 Chicago Leland Giants. In their only season together, this combination of players played their way into the heart and soul of a nation divided. They are proof positive that the National and American Leagues did not corner the market on athletic talent. Foster's unit began the season with a thirty-two and one record and ended with thirty-one consecutive victories. They scored nearly 1,000 runs and finished the season with a 124-71 record. Their win total is elevated to 138-11-2 when Cuban Winter League games are added. They played 64 games in the Chicago portion of their schedule. These games are equivalent to a home schedule for National and American League teams. Foster's Giants finished with a landmark 57-6-1 record for games played in Chicago. That Foster, John Henry Lloyd, and John Pete Hill, three members of the 1910 Leland Giants, are enshrined in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York, is worthy of closer observation. And yet Bruce Petway, Frank Wickware, and Grant Home Run Johnson should be there too. Thus, Phil Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Volume II Great Teams enters the illustrious conversation. The Leland Giants' story is uniquely told here in a day-to-day account of every exciting win and every memorable thrill. The comparative scores and related histories are a resourceful and entertaining aid for further analysis of the participation of African American athletes in baseball as best represented by one legendary team in a single championship season. Pittsburgh's Greatest Teams

David Finoli, 2017-10-30 Pittsburgh is synonymous with winning From the Penguins and Steelers to the Pirates and Panthers the Steel City knows championships There must be something special in the water to make Pittsburgh so particularly gifted with its sports teams The most famous teams in the city's history would most likely be the 1970s Steelers known as the Steel Curtain for obvious reasons and the Penguins who raised the Stanley Cup five times Names such as Lemieux Crosby Roethlisberger Bradshaw Clemente and Stargell are legends of American sport and members of Pittsburgh's most cherished franchises but for every sports legend and multi million dollar franchise there are a dozen more talented players and long past teams that have been forgotten to history the Negro League's Crawford and Homestead Grays are too often overlooked in the city's sports history but were as talented as any team that has played there Author Dave Finoli ranks the fifty greatest teams that won trophies brought glory and lifted the hearts of Pittsburgh's devoted sports fans The Greatest Team of All Scott Gullan, 2022-12-08 After 11 years the AFL Geelong team have won the AFL Premiership and Path to Glory goes behind the scenes as round by round Geelong made their way to the top Baily's Magazine of Sports and Pastimes, 1896
