Mysterious Accident which will shed light on one of the most harrowing events in the composer's life The Era of the Martyrs Aaltje Hidding, 2020-08-24 One of the most traumatic experiences of Late Antique Christians was the Great Persecution begun by Emperor Diocletian and his Tetrarchic colleagues in 303 CE Here Aaltje Hidding unites research of traditional memory studies with work done by cognitive scientists to examine how they remembered the Persecution The resulting methodological framework the cognitive ecology systemically studies all what can be covered by this term social surroundings cognitive artefacts and the physical environment and bridges the gap between individual and collective memory The author analyses the remembrance of the Persecution in three different regions along the Nile river In Oxyrhynchus the thousands of papyrus fragments found at the city's rubbish dump give a vivid image of the martyrs in the daily lives of the Oxyrhynchites In Antinoopolis known for the cult of the physician saint Colluthus she zooms in on the rituals and practices at a martyr's sanctuary Finally in Dandara the rich hagiographical dossier of the anchorite Paphnutius shows how old memories of the Persecution became mixed with new monastic experiences The Bohairic and Greek Passion of Paphnutius appear in their first complete English translations Charles Mackerras Nigel Simeone, John Tyrrell, 2015 By the time of his death in 2010 at the age of 84 Sir Charles Mackerras had achieved widespread recognition recorded extensively and developed into a conductor of major international significance A detailed narrative account of his life is complemented by chapters written by performers and scholars who worked closely with Mackerras as well as interviews with his family The book is illustrated with photographs and documents and it includes a comprehensive discography along with listings of many of his concert and opera performances While Sir Charles' whole life is considered emphasis is given to his final quarter century a period in which so many important projects were realized Signs of Change , 2021-11-08 Signs of Change Transformations of Christian Traditions and their Representation in the Arts 1000-2000 focuses on the changing relationships between what gradually emerged as the Arts and Christianity the latter term covering both a stream of ideas and its institutions The book as a whole is addressed to a general academic audience concerned with issues of cultural history while the individual essays are also intended as scholarly contributions within their own fields A collaborative effort by twenty-five European and American scholars representing disciplines ranging from aesthetics to the history of art and architecture from literature music and the theatre to classics church history and theology the volume is an interdisciplinary study of intermedial phenomena generally in larger cultural and intellectual contexts The focus of topics extends from single concrete objects to sets of abstract concepts and values and from a single moment in time to an entire millennium While Signs of Change acknowledges the importance of synthesizing efforts essential to hermeneutically informed scholarship in order to counterbalance generalized historical narratives with detailed investigations broad accounts are juxtaposed with specialized research projects The deliberately unchronological grouping of contributions underlines the effort to further discussion about methodologies for writing cultural history The Century , 1888 The Greek Passion , 1981
