The Griffith Project, The Volume 7 Eileen Bowser,2003 No Marketing Blurb      The Griffith Project Paolo Cherchi Usai,2008 No other silent film director has been as extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multivolume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival the Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century      Stagestruck

Filmmaker David Mayer,2009-03 An actor a vaudevillian and a dramatist before he became a filmmaker D W Griffith used the resources of theatre to great purpose and to great ends In pioneering the quintessentially modern medium of film from the 1890s to the 1930s he drew from older more broadly appealing stage forms of melodrama comedy vaudeville and variety In Stagestruck Filmmaker David Mayer brings Griffith s process vividly to life offering detailed and valuable insights into the racial ethnic class and gender issues of these transitional decades Combining the raw materials of theatre circus minstrelsy and dance with the newer visual codes of motion pictures Griffith became the first acknowledged artist of American film Birth of a Nation in particular demonstrates the degree to which he was influenced by the racist justifications and distorting interpretations of the Civil War and the Reconstruction era Moving through the major phases of Griffith s career in chapters organized around key films or groups of films Mayer provides a mesmerizing account of the American stage and cinema in the final years of the nineteenth century and the first three decades of the twentieth century Griffith s relationship to the theatre was intricate complex and enduring Long recognized as the dominant creative figure of American motion pictures throughout twenty six years of making more than five hundred films he pillaged adapted reshaped revitalized preserved and extolled By historicizing his representations of race ethnicity and otherness Mayer places Griffith within an overall template of American life in the years when film rivaled and then surpassed the theatre in popularity      American Cinema of the 1910s

Charlie Keil,Ben Singer,2009-02-04 It was during the teens that filmmaking truly came into its own Notably the migration of studios to the West Coast established a connection between moviemaking and the exoticism of Hollywood The essays in American Cinema of the 1910s explore the rapid developments of the decade that began with D W Griffith s unrivaled one reelers By mid decade multi reel feature films were profoundly reshaping the industry and deluxe theaters were built to attract the broadest possible audience Stars like Mary Pickford Charlie Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks became vitally important and companies began writing high profile contracts to secure them With the outbreak of World War I the political economic and industrial groundwork was laid for American cinema s global dominance By the end of the decade filmmaking had become a true industry complete with vertical integration efficient specialization and standardization of practices and self regulatory agencies     The Griffith Project Eileen Bowser,1999 No other silent film director has been so extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than 500 films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still awaits proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multi volume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field     The Origins of the Film Star System Andrew Shail,2019-05-30 Drawing on a wide range of archival sources Andrew Shail traces the emergence of film stardom in Europe and North America in the early 20th century Modifying and supplementing Richard deCordova's account of the birth of the US star system Shail describes the complex set of economic circumstances that led film studios and actors to consent to the adoption of a star system He then explores the film industry's turn from 1908 to making character based series films He details how these characters both prefigured and precipitated the star system demonstrating that series characters and the firmament of film stars are functionally equivalent and shows how openly fictional characters still provide the model for real film stars     American Film History Cynthia Lucia,Roy Grundmann,Art Simon,2015-06-25 This authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the rich and innovative history of this period in American cinema Spanning an essential range of subjects from the early 1900s Nickelodeon to the decline of the studio system in the 1960s it combines a broad historical context with careful readings of individual films Charts the rise of film in early twentieth century America from its origins to 1960 exploring mainstream trends and developments along with topics often relegated to the margins of standard film histories Covers diverse issues ranging from silent film and its iconic figures such as Charlie Chaplin to the coming of sound and the rise of film genres studio moguls and later the Production Code and Cold War Blacklist Designed with both students and scholars in mind each section opens with an historical overview and includes chapters that provide close careful readings of individual films clustered around specific topics Accessibly structured by historical period offering valuable cultural social and political contexts Contains careful close analysis of key filmmakers and films from the era including D W Griffith Charles Chaplin Buster Keaton Erich von Stroheim Cecil B DeMille Don Juan The Jazz Singer I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang Scarface Red Dust Glorifying the American Girl Meet Me in St Louis Citizen Kane Bambi Frank Capra's Why We Fight series The Strange Love of Martha Ivers Rebel Without a Cause Force of Evil and selected American avant garde and underground films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings 1960 to the Present to provide an authoritative study of American cinema through the new millennium     The Griffith Project, The Volume 7 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been as extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still await proper
