The Gospel People:

The Gospel People Don't Want to Hear Lisa Cressman, 2020-05-05 Lisa Cressman founder of Backstory Preaching offers preachers tools to craft difficult sermon messages that can be heard The gospel changes lives but to do that it must first be heard For it to be heard people have to trust they are seen and their concerns and fears are acknowledged They have to feel their perspectives are real valid and respected Preachers have a difficult message to preach a message many will not want to hear new life always emerges from death Cressman shows preachers how to craft sermons with the right tone and how to have the courage to say what you're called to say Part 1 of the book provides the preparatory work needed before crafting those difficult sermon messages Here the focus is on how preachers prepare themselves build relationships of mutual trust with listeners and understand and appropriately use authority and leadership to proclaim the gospel Part 2 focuses on the sermon itself with suggestions on what to say and how to say it The preacher will find new tools and sharpen existing ones to preach difficult messages with empathy compassion and skill

Intercessions for the Christian People

The Duty of a Christian People under Divine Visitations Newton Smart, 2021-05-19 In The Duty of a Christian People under Divine Visitations Newton Smart masterfully explores the interplay between divine providence and human responsibility Through a richly theological lens the book addresses the moral obligations that arise in times of societal upheaval and disaster framing these divine visitations as opportunities for spiritual reflection and renewal Smart employs a blend of eloquent prose and scriptural exegesis drawing on historical and contemporary examples to illustrate his points making it both an insightful and practical guide for Christians facing tribulations Newton Smart a noted theologian and pastor draws from his extensive background in ecclesiastical studies and pastoral care to inform his writing His experiences in various ministry roles during tumultuous times have shaped his understanding of divine intervention and communal responsibility This book reflects Smart's belief that faith is not merely a personal journey but a collective undertaking emphasizing the role of community in grappling with crises This compelling text is a must read for those seeking to understand their spiritual responsibilities in challenging times Whether you are a scholar of theology or a layperson desiring deeper insight into your faith Smart's work provides a thought provoking framework for interpreting divine events and their implications for Christian living

An Appeal to the Common Sense of all Christian People, more particularly the members of the Church of England, with regard to an important point of Faith and Practice, imposed on their consciences by church authority. Gospel People Michael Reeves, 2022-03-02 A Biblical Case for the Importance and Goodness of Being Evangelical The term evangelical is often poorly defined and frequently comes with cultural and political baggage As the label has become more controversial many Christians have begun to wonder if they should abandon it altogether Michael Reeves argues from a global scriptural and historical perspective that while it is not necessary to discard the label altogether Christians must return to the root of the term the evangel or gospel in order to understand what it truly means He identifies the theology of evangelicalism and its essential doctrine the Father's revelation in the Bible the Son's redemption in the gospel and the Spirit's regeneration of the heart calling believers to stand with integrity as people of the gospel A Biblical and Theological Explanation of Evangelicalism Rooted in Scripture and the writings of figures throughout church history Globally Minded Explores evangelical theology and distinctives outside of narrow cultural definitions Brief and Accessible Written for both lay people and church leaders
