Playing Place Chad Randl, D. Medina Lasansky, 2023-08-15 An essay collection exploring the board game's relationship to the built environment revealing the unexpected ways that play reflects perceptions of space Board games harness the creation of entirely new worlds From the medieval warlord to the modern urban planner players are permitted to inhabit a staggering variety of roles and are prompted to incorporate preexisting notions of placemaking into their decisions To what extent do board games represent the social context of their production How might they reinforce or subvert normative ideas of community and fulfillment In Playing Place Chad Randl and D Medina Lasansky have curated a collection of thirty seven fascinating essays supplemented by a rich trove of photo illustrations that unpack these questions with breadth and care Although board games are often recreational objects their mythologies and infrastructure do not exist in a vacuum rather they echo and reproduce prevalent cultural landscapes This thesis forms the throughline of pieces reflecting on subjects as diverse as the rigidly gendered fantasies of classic mass market games the imperial convictions embedded in games that position player protagonists as conquerors establishing dominion over their discoveries and even the uncanny prescience of games that have players responding to a global pandemic Representing a thrilling convergence of historiography architectural history and media studies scholarship Playing Place suggests not only that tabletop games should be taken seriously but also that the medium itself is uniquely capable of facilitating our critical consideration of structures that are often taken for granted

Detective Fiction for Young Readers Chris McGee, 2024-09-18 Detective Fiction for Young Readers is an examination of contemporary mystery stories for children and young adults This volume explores how the conventions rules and expectations of adult mystery fiction have filtered down so to speak especially in the past several decades to writing for younger readers The book is organized into three sections that explore the whodunit the hardboiled and the metaphysical styles of mystery fiction Furthermore this text analyzes how each style has been adapted for a younger audience acknowledging and exploring representative novels most in keeping with that style This volume is ideal for students academics and readers interested in children s mystery fiction that adheres to formulas made popular after the golden age of classic detective fiction     Mathematics Teaching in the Middle School ,1994     Boys' Life ,1959-11 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting     Playthings ,1953     Boys' Life ,1959-09 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting     Time Briton Hadden, Henry R.
