The Great Prophets:

The Major Prophets James E. Smith, 1992 The Major Prophets is the fourth volume of a solid concise study through the Old Testament. This volume covers Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, and Daniel. This hardcover study has quickly become a valuable aid for students and teachers alike. James E. Smith has written a concise, clear, informative, easy to read series that should be in every Christian's library. It is both scholarly and practical. At College Press our motto is Every Christian a Bible Student. This is the kind of helpful, challenging resource that represents the very essence of that motto. In addition to first rate commentary, Smith has included charts, maps, mnemonic devices, and outlines to help the Old Testament come alive. About the author: James E. Smith received his undergraduate and seminary training at Cincinnati Bible Seminary. He was awarded the PhD degree by Hebrew Union College Jewish Institute of Religion. Dr. Smith has served congregations in Ohio and Kentucky. For thirteen years he was Professor of Old Testament at Cincinnati Bible Seminary. He currently serves Florida Christian College as Chairman of the Division of Biblical Studies.

The Two Great Prophets Reverend Elkan V. Kemp, 2009-01-19 It was his survival of a near fatal head-on collision in 1940 that turned Elkan Kemp's life around. After crossing the threshold of death twice while hospitalized, he gained a new perspective on life and on death as well. During his six years in the Air Corps, he met his dream girl while at Pearl Harbor and they were married. Elkan Kemp began his college education in 1946 at the University of Iowa. There he obtained both a BA and an MA degree with majors in Sociology and Religion. It was during this time that his interests included in-depth studies of the Old Testament under Rabbi Judah Goldin. He studied religion under Dr. Marcus Bach and Theology under several Jesuit priests. He learned five dialects in Greek and received honors in Phi Eta Sigma, Eta Sigma Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa. Reverend Kemp's religious studies at the University of Iowa led him to three years of graduate work at the San Francisco Theological Seminary, which included research in Greek and advanced Hebrew. He also went on to earn a divinity degree and a Seminary Fellowship for study at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. His experience at the University of Edinburgh led him to more advanced work in Hebrew and extensive studies of the Muslim religion. With a Ph.D. thesis entitled "Life, Death, and What Comes After," Elkan Kemp's education now led him to his lifelong devotion to pastoral work. After teaching from the Bible for more than 60 years, Reverend Kemp became aware of just how many thinking people have been frustrated by the walls of religious myth, legend, creed, and dogma that the churches and synagogues have erected. His decision to write this book came out of a desire to ease those frustrations by helping people to break down those walls. There was a practical side to his effort. He sat with many deeply religious laymen and ministers who came to that event we call death with great anxiety. Reverend Kemp believes that it is evident that the Judaeo-Christian religion is not working for those walls require a hand me down religion and this does not work. Reverend Kemp states: We truly believe only what we know about our God first hand. I hope with this book people will be able to find that experience and to have a full life and then come to death with a firm, happy confidence not just a vague hope.
