The Green Salamander:

The Snake and the Salamander Alvin R. Breisch, 2017-03-15 A beautifully illustrated tour of the region's snakes lizards turtles frogs and salamanders Winner of the National Outdoor Book Award of the NOBA Foundation Nature and Environment Category In the best tradition of natural history writing and art The Snake and the Salamander explores the diverse collection of reptiles and amphibians that inhabit the northeastern quadrant of the United States Covering 13 states that run from Maine to Virginia author Alvin R Breisch and artist Matt Patterson showcase the lives of 83 species of snakes lizards turtles frogs and salamanders These intriguing animals are organized by habitat and type from forest to grassland to bogs to big waters and revealed through a combination of Breisch's engaging prose and Patterson's original color illustrations Breisch's guided tour combines historical notes and conservation issues with lessons on genetics evolution habitats life histories and more Discover how careful attention to frog calls coupled with DNA analysis led to the discovery of a new species of frog in New York City why evolutionary adaptations made the Eastern Ratsnake a superb climber and the surprising fact that Spiny Softshell turtles actually sprint on land to retreat from predators Breisch also tells the odd tale of the Green Frog and the Smooth Greensnake two green species that do not actually have any green pigment in their skin Every species has a story to tell one that will keep the reader wanting to learn more The breadth of herpetofauna in the area will surprise many readers more than 8% of the world's salamanders and 11% of all turtle species live in the region Beyond numbers however lie aesthetics The surprising colors and fascinating lifestyles of the reptile and amphibian species in this book will mesmerize readers young and old The Green Salamander Pamela Hill, 1978-08-01 Stalking the Vesper Bluets Stephen Cresswell, 2016-09-12 Stalking the Vesper Bluets is a collection of images by nature photographer Stephen Cresswell Fifty short essays accompany the photos on topics ranging from male camaraderie among walruses to human interactions with Snapping Turtles to researching the sex lives of fishes Land Managers Guide to the Amphibians and Reptiles of the South Lawrence A. Wilson, 1995 The Natural Communities of Georgia Leslie Edwards, Jonathan Ambrose, L. Katherine Kirkman, 2013-02-01 The Natural Communities of Georgia presents a comprehensive overview of the state's natural landscapes providing an ecological context to enhance understanding of this region's natural history Georgia boasts an impressive range of natural communities assemblages of interacting species that have either been minimally impacted by modern human activities or have successfully recovered from them This guide makes the case that identifying these distinctive communities and the factors that determine their distribution are central to understanding Georgia's ecological diversity and the steps necessary for its conservation Within Georgia's five major ecoregions the editors identify and describe a total of sixty six natural communities such as the expansive salt marshes of the barrier islands in the Maritime ecoregion the fire driven longleaf pine woodlands of the Coastal Plain the beautiful granite outcrops of the Piedmont the rare prairies of the Ridge and Valley and the diverse coves of the Blue Ridge With contributions from scientists who have managed researched and written about Georgia landscapes for decades the guide features more than four hundred color photographs that reveal the stunning natural beauty and diversity of the state The book also explores conservation issues including rare or declining species current and future threats to specific areas and research needs and provides land management strategies for preserving restoring and maintaining biotic communities The Natural Communities of Georgia is an essential reference for ecologists and other scientists as well as a rich resource for Georgians interested in the region s natural heritage
