The Diary Of Cozette (Mills & Boon Spice) Amanda McIntyre,2009-05-01 Passion knows no status or wealth The Diary Of Cozette Amanda McIntyre,2012-07-06 Passion knows no status or wealth True I am but a mere maidservant from a great house snatched from a wretched existence of poverty and desperation to serve noblemen of wealth and privilege And yet While I am indeed of lowly rank I am also a young woman who allowed herself to sample life s greatest pleasures in the hands of these titled men My tales overflow in this journal penning my journey to becoming a woman of power of the most base yet stimulating breed Unmarried and twenty yet betrothed to no man I would be considered a spinster by most yet this is of my own ardent intention With my unabashed lushness and wisdom regarding a man s most vehement cravings I am not lacking for suitors or proposals given in the heat of passion No I have yet to meet the man who will challenge me satisfy me in all ways not only of the flesh For where passion and desire are fleeting my heart continues to beat Forbidden

May 1785-March 1786 George Washington,1992 The Papers of George Washington a grant funded project established in 1968 at the University of Virginia under the joint auspices of the University and the Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union to publish a comprehensive edition of Washington's correspondence. Letters written to Washington as well as letters and documents written by him are being published in the complete edition that will consist of approximately ninety volumes. The work is now 2011 more than two thirds complete. The edition is supported financially by grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, the Mount Vernon Ladies Association, the University of Virginia, and gifts from private foundations and individuals. Today there are copies of over 135 000 Washington documents in the project's document room. This is one of the richest collections of American historical manuscripts extant. There is almost no facet of research on life and enterprise in the late colonial and early national periods that will not be enhanced by material from these documents. The publication of Washington's papers will make this source material available not only to scholars but to all Americans interested in the founding of their nation.

Copyright Office, 1955 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June Books and Bookmen, 1973 Woven Gold Charissa Bremer-David, 2015-12-15 Meticulously woven by hand with wool silk and gilt metal thread the tapestry collection of the Sun King Louis XIV of France represents the highest achievements of the art form. Intended to enhance the king's reputation by visualizing his manifest glory and to promote the kingdom's nascent mercantile economy the royal collection of tapestries included antique and contemporary sets that followed the designs of the greatest artists of the Renaissance and Baroque periods including Raphael Giulio Romano Rubens Vouet and Le Brun. Ranging in date from about 1540 to 1715 and coming from weaving workshops across northern Europe these remarkable works portray scenes from the bible history and mythology. As treasured textiles the works were traditionally displayed in the royal palaces when the court was in residence and in public on special occasions and feast days. They are still little known even in France as they are mostly reserved for the decoration of elite state residences and ministerial offices. This catalogue accompanies an exhibition of fourteen marvelous examples of the former royal collection that will be displayed exclusively at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from December 15 2015 to May 1 2016. Lavishly illustrated the volume presents for the first time in English the latest scholarship of the foremost authorities working in the field.
