The Unification of German Education Val Dean Rust, Diane Rust, 1995 This study of the integration of East and West German education following the collapse of the German Democratic Republic in 1989 focuses on policy formation and implementation during this period of great social and political turbulence It is the result of a research project undertaken shortly after the unification The authors lived in East Germany for a full year looking carefully at individual schools vocational training centers teacher colleges and universities They asked macro analytic questions What are the conditions in which educational policy is successfully formulated How is this educational policy implemented What are the consequences of this policy From the start West Germany demanded a complete dismantling of the educational system in the former German Democratic Republic West German political leaders insisted as a condition of unification that all important agreements concerning education made by the GDR states be accepted by the new states The authors research shows that even before the unification East Germans had already opted for a system consistent with West German education law However the West Germans disregarded these changes and imposed their own version of reform on East Germany The study reveals that in this period of confusion the East Germans did not fully analyze the implications of the imposed conditions which now have unforeseen negative consequences The German situation is of great interest to all educators particularly students of educational policy making as well as researchers in political science economics and sociology New Europe, New Germany, Old Foreign Policy? Douglas Webber, 2001 The contributions to this volume analyze how and the extent to which German foreign and European policy has changed since German unification Ten Years of German Unification Jörn Leonhard, Lothar Funk, 2002-04-30 In May 2000 scholars of history law politics and economics gathered in London to compare their various methodological and empirical perspectives on the 1989/90 collapse of the Germanies into a unity and the aftermath of the event from the perspective of a decade Their 14 studies cover history Germany After Unification Gert-Joachim Glaesner, 2023-11-27 German Monitor founded in 1979 is a series for themed edited volumes on literature culture and politics in the German speaking world since 1945 Our approach is inclusive some volumes focus on single authors political figures or genres other volumes explore themes such as narratives of trauma German left wing terrorism local global narratives and the roles that Germany Austria and Switzerland play in Europe today We welcome proposals for
