The American Idea of Home Bernard Friedman, 2017-05-02. Over thirty leaders in American architecture discuss the most significant issues in the field today. Home is an idea. Meghan Daum writes in her foreword a story we tell ourselves about who we are and who and what we want closest in our midst. In The American Idea of Home, documentary filmmaker Bernard Friedman interviews more than thirty leaders in the field of architecture about a constellation of ideas relating to housing and home. The interviewees include Pritzker Prize winners Thom Mayne, Richard Meier, and Robert Venturi; Pulitzer Prize winners Paul Goldberger and Tracy Kidder; American Institute of Architects head Robert Ivy; and legendary architects such as Denise Scott Brown, Charles Gwathmey, Kenneth Frampton, and Robert A. M. Stern. The American idea of home and the many types of housing that embody it launch lively, wide-ranging conversations about some of the most vital and important issues in architecture today. The topics that Friedman and his interviewees discuss illuminate five overarching themes: the functions and meanings of home, history, tradition, and change in residential architecture, activism, sustainability, and the environment.
