Date

Dear Name

I just needed to let you know how much I have enjoyed spending the summer as camp counsellors together. I can hardly think that our time together is coming to an end. Knowing you has been one of the best times of my summer. Even though we only met in march, it feels like we've been friends for a long time.

I believe you will be back to work as an instructor next year. I'd love to spend another fun summer collectively before we both graduate college and go off to join the real world. Until then, let's try to keep in touch! Please keep in touch. Have a great time until we meet again. Goodbye!

The Goodbye Letters:

The Goodbye Letters , The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Analytic Therapy Laura Brummer, Marisol Cavieres, Ranil Tan, 2024-02-28 The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Analytic Therapy presents a comprehensive guide to the cognitive analytic therapy CAT model. It balances established theory and practice alongside a focus on innovation in both direct work with clients and the application of CAT more broadly within teams, organizations and training and as a model for leadership. The volume includes a range of innovations in doing and using CAT which are directly applicable for those studying and working in health, social care and private services across many specialties encompassing the entire lifespan. This includes child and adolescent services, working age through to older adults, individuals engaged with mental health services and within forensic and prison populations and those experiencing physical health and neurological difficulties both in community and inpatient settings. Given the social and dialogic origins of CAT, the book acknowledges the importance of the wider social, cultural and political factors that can shape an individual's understanding of self and other, with chapters that both apply a CAT understanding to key issues such as racism and social context and provide a critique to the extent in which CAT engages with these issues in practice. This volume also has a focus on professional standards and governance encompassing training, supervision and a competency framework and throughout the book the editors have endeavoured to include clients' voices including personal reflections, extracts from actual CATs and co-produced chapters to ensure the book holds true to the collaborative nature of CAT. A Beginner's Guide to Cognitive Analytic Therapy Sarah Craven-Staines, Jayne Finch, 2024-07-09 This text provides an accessible, reader-friendly guide to conducting Cognitive Analytic Therapy (CAT) on a one-to-one basis, developed in partnership with service users who have lived experience of CAT. The book will cover the applications of CAT in clinical practice, including assessment, introducing CAT, the main concepts and how to build a therapeutic relationship, mapping the middle phase and the integration of other models, monitoring, developing, exiting the ending and saying goodbye. Grounded in CAT theory, the content will be ordered sequentially as one would conduct the therapy and will feature first-hand accounts from CAT-experienced service users, including their own perspectives on the model and the impact it had on their wellbeing. A straightforward beginner's introduction to practicing CAT, this book will be useful for trainee practitioners, assistant and trainee clinical counselling psychologists and those practising CAT-informed therapy in supervision. The Complete Guide to Crisis & Trauma Counseling H. Norman Wright, 2011-12-14 Many pastors and lay counselors have had minimal training in clinical methods of grief and trauma counseling. The Complete Guide to Crisis and Trauma Counseling is a biblical, practical guide to pastoral counseling written by one of the most respected Christian therapists of our time. Dr. H. Norman Wright brings more than forty years of clinical and classroom experience to this topic. He shares real-life dialogues from his decades in private practice to demonstrate healthy, healing counseling sessions. Readers will learn how to counsel and coach both believers and nonbelievers who are in crisis, how to walk alongside them through the hours weeks and months following their trauma and how to help them find the path to complete restoration
