The Historical Jesus Guidelines For Contemporary Catholics:

The Historical Jesus Michael LaVelle Cook,1986 The Critic ,1985 Contemporary Catholic Theology Michael A. Hayes,Liam Gearon,1999-03-01 The contents of this volume offer the reader a broad insight into Catholic theology Established as an indispensable introduction to six areas of study The Old Testament The New Testament The Person of Jesus The Church Christian Morality and The Sacraments This collection provides key texts from some of the most distinguished writers in Catholic theology today Contributors include Philippe BTguerie and Claude Duchesneau Christopher Butler Raymond Brown S S Joseph A Fitzmyer S J Gideon Goosen and Margaret Tomlinson John H Hayes Monika Hellwig Aidan Kavanagh O S B Dermot A Lane Enda Lyons Vincent MacNamara Richard P McBrien Enda McDonagh Joseph Martos Robert Murray S J Denis F O Callaghan Timothy E O Connell John F O Grady Jean Pierre PrTvost Thomas P Rausch S J Jeffrey S Siker Daniel L Smith Christopher Francis Sullivan S J New Testament Abstracts ,1988 Uniform Trade List Annual ,1989 12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon,2020-04-30 If you ve ever browsed the self help sections of any bookshop you d be forgiven for thinking that all we need to do in order to have a better life is to work hard take exercise and get thin Yet Christian activism calls us to a bigger vision of what life is for It dares to suggest that Christians change the world for the better In 12 Rules for Christian Activists Ellen Loudon and a host of contributors present 12 accessible and practical principles to encourage a new generation to create a movement for positive social change Each chapter combines clear theological insight with inspiring stories told by activists and practitioners including Naomi Maynard activist researcher Richard Peers spiritual director Angus Ritchie Director Centre for Theology and Community and Nadine Daniel Church of England National Refugee Coordinator Jesus, the Christ Brennan Hill,1991 Comprehensive and up to date research combined with the author s great gift of communication makes this a particularly popular text for introducing the historical Jesus to college students and adults Current issues are treated with clarity and candor Inventing Christic Jesuses: Rules and Warrants for Theology Charles A. Wilson,2018-11-01 In the first comprehensive proposal for revisionist theology s deployment of historical Jesus research Inventing Christic Jesuses rejects positions that insulate theology from Jesus research By setting out theological methods warrants and rules in dialogue with an analysis of the Jesus historians of the Third Quest c 1980 2010 the study charts a path toward a quested christology positioned between categorical rejection and uncritical acceptance of historical results on Jesus Volume 1 Method analyzes the methods and values of historical research on Jesus and identifies the retrojective activity of value production when historians in conversation with historical sources invent images of Jesus Volume 2 Christological Recommendations gathers potential contributions of Jesus research for revisionist theology according to the cataphatic apophatic and eminent pattern of classical theology By attending to the limits and opportunities afforded by historical research both negative and positive the argument retrieves for theology the complex way that historians shape same and different association and dissociation in the production of their Jesuses Then it analyzes how values shape Jesus in a pervasive Narcissus project to invent a self and a community through imaging Jesus. Proposing that the disciplined invention of Jesus is highly useful for theology, the book ends with recommendations for a quested christology.

Jesus the Miracle Worker Graham H. Twelftree, 1999-05-25 Graham Twelftree extensively examines the miracles of each Gospel narrative. He weighs their historical reliability and considers the question of miracles and the modern mind.

Christian Tradition Today Jeffrey C. K. Goh, 2000 This study critically examines the postliberal project with special reference to George Lindbeck, the founding father of postliberalism. In an age of profound cultural change, is it feasible to locate the future of the Church and of the world on a consensus building hermeneutic that dwells in the particularity of the Christian Scripture as its exclusive home? Seeing the theological task as a hermeneutical task founded upon the premise that truth is revealed in a dialectical way, the author provides an intelligible framework for dialogue with the postliberal school of thought. This dialogue, he argues, is ultimately determined by the overarching question of what it means to be Church. Towards a critical synthesis of the ecclesiological impact of this dialogue, the author offers a tightly argued and informative discussion on five pairs of key concepts: tradition and authority, Bible and de Christianization, hermeneutics and revelation, religion and experience, doctrine and truth.

Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges, 2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters: Developments, Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims. Divided into two parts, the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions. The second part highlights case studies from around the world. Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone, Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett, emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives. Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian-Muslim encounter, case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9/11, Nigerian Muslims and Christians, and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK. Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere, Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters: Developments, Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students, researchers and interfaith professionals.
