Conversation must take his course or he would none of it Generally he controlled If an upstart endeavored to turn the subject Mr Pierce waited till the intruder had done speaking and then quietly but firmly would remark Relative to the subject we were discussing a moment ago If any one ventured to speak even sotto voce before Mr Pierce had finished all he had to say he would at once cease his monologue wait till the interloper had finished and then resume his lecture just where he had been interrupted Only once had Mr Pierce found this method to fail in quelling even the sturdiest of rivals The recollection of that day is still a mortification to him It had happened on the deck of an ocean steamer For thirty minutes he had fought his antagonist bravely Then humbled and vanquished he had sought the smoking room to moisten his parched throat and solace his wounded spirit with a star cocktail He had at last met his superior He yielded the deck to the fog horn At the present moment Mr Pierce was having things very much his own way Seated in the standing room of a small yacht were some eight people With a leaden sky overhead and a leaden sea about it the boat gently rose and fell with the ground swell Three miles away could be seen the flash light marking the entrance to the harbor But though slowly gathering clouds told that wind was coming the yacht now lay becalmed drifting with the ebb tide The pleasure seekers had been together all day and were decidedly talked out For the last hour they had been singing songs always omitting Mr Pierce who never so trifled with his vocal organs During this time he had been restless At one point he had attempted to deliver his opinion on the relation of verse to music but an unfeeling member of the party had struck up John Brown s Body and his lecture had ended in the usual serial style at the most interesting point without even the promise of a continuation in our next Finally however the singers had sung themselves hoarse in the damp night air the last Spanish Cavalier had been safely restored to his inevitable true love and the sound of voices and banjo floated away over the water Mr Pierce s moment had come Some one and it is unnecessary to mention the sex had given a sigh and regretted that nineteenth century life was so prosaic and unromantic Clearing his throat quite as much to pre empt the pause as to articulate the better Mr Pierce spoke
