The Honorary Consul

Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons

The Honorary Consul:

The Honorary Consul Graham Greene, 2010-10-02 A gripping tragicomedy of a bungled kidnapping in a provincial Argentinean town considered to be one of Greene's finest novels In a provincial Argentinian community Charley Fortnum a British consul with dubious authority and a notorious fondness for drink is kidnapped by rebels in a case of mistaken identity The young but world weary Doctor Eduardo Plarr is left to pick up the pieces and secure Fortnum's release wading through a sea of incompetence and unearthing corruption among authorities and revolutionaries in the process First published in 1973 The Honorary Consul was one of Greene's own favourites of his works and is regarded amongst his finest novels with Plarr perhaps the most moving and convincing figure in his fiction WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY NICHOLAS SHAKESPEARE Perhaps the most enduring novel that even he has given us Daily Mail The Honorary Consul, 1980 The Honorary Consul - based on the novel by Graham Greene, 1989 Le Livre Du Corps Diplomatique W G Hill, 2020-11-11 An honorary diplomat is normally appointed by countries who cannot afford or do not wish to spend the substantial amounts required to set up an office Appointing an honorary consul saves them the cost of supporting a staff and sending out their own citizens as full time diplomatic representatives abroad The work of an honorary consul is exactly the same as that of a career diplomat of the same rank Typically this work involves issuing or renewing visas and passports helping businessmen and tourists with problems promoting commerce and cultural exchanges and above all showing the flag by going to and giving parties Of course the honorary consul is expected to put in only a few unpaid hours of non social business per week Wining dining and dancing are the major activities Smiling and being diplomatic is the major chores An honorary consul general may serve his sending country in a major city or his jurisdiction may cover a substantial territory He or she may have within this jurisdiction lower ranking honorary consuls vice consuls and Diplomatic Agents A consul looks after a smaller city or town The highest ranking foreign diplomat in a receiving country is an ambassador who normally serves only in a national capital Honorary Ambassadors are very rare But less rare is the situation where a citizen of the receiving country is naturalized as a citizen of the sending country and then returns to his own country possibly as a dual citizen being appointed ambassador or consul general not honorary However we will not get bogged down in such interesting possibilities on our first pages The important thing to remember is that most countries appoint honorary consuls Want to live the high life of a diplomat Would you like social recognition great parties big money contracts preferential treatment This truly unique book by W G Hill explores the exotic world of securing an appointment as an Honorary Consul Many countries cannot afford to maintain all the consular representation they would like and can be persuaded to appoint Honorary Consuls instead YOU would represent them in your own country presumably for mutual benefit Your appointment then becomes your key to a vastly expanded world of social and economic advantages and new opportunities You will of course be expected to act diplomatically smile a lot and add that special touch of class to the many social functions you will attend Hill himself served a number of years as an Honorary Consul gaining the insights he shares in this limited edition book He details everything you need to know to secure your own appointment Advantages disadvantages Diplomatic Immunity Securing Appointment Etiquette and Protocol Diplomatic Passport Choosing the right country to represent He also illustrates sample letters documents and forms to use as well as the addresses of countries to contact Don't pass up this chance of a lifetime without reading Hill's book first The many advantages and opportunities of becoming an Honorary Consul could change your life forever Click Buy Now and Start The First Day Of Your New Life as an Honorary Consul General Today Join our discussion forums for PTs PT Club and the PT Refuge You will find more details on the six flags the PT philosophy the PT books Information and resources and plenty of free reading material at W G Hill's Official Site PTsecrets WEB www.FreedomPrivacyWealth.com The Dominions Office and Colonial Office List for ... Great Britain.
