The Hunt For Tanya:

The Hunt for Tanya Eleanor Trevithick, 2001-07 FINDING PIECES AND PEACE Dianne Haaland, 2024-11-15 In 1970 Colorado Child Welfare labeled author Dianne Haaland's future daughter as unadoptable because she was a minority. In the 70s few people knew about Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders or the Indian Child Welfare Act. All that was about to change for the family. At their first meeting Haaland and her husband were mesmerized by a beautiful beguiling baby girl and wanted to bring her home immediately. The final adoption occurred six months later and they were a family of four. In Finding Pieces and Peace Haaland shares the difficulties that arose from adopting a Native American child and managing the unknown diseases, disabling physical conditions and the reconciliation of all participants. For years this mother listened to the questions and inquiries: "Are you sure you weren't adopted? You don't look like anyone in your family. Why didn't my mother want me?" This book gives a voice to foster children, adoptees and relinquishing mothers who wanted to share their stories. Haaland and her daughter Tanya know they can't change the past but it's not too late to help change the future. By sharing their stories they show an alternative pathway, often trying and failing but learning to survive through trial and error. Last Orders PJ Skinner, 2024-08-31 Has a restaurant critic's scathing review led to his murder? Local sleuth Tanya Bowe attends the long-awaited opening of the Surfusion restaurant. The unexpected arrival of a famous food critic raises the stakes for the owners and increases the buzz of excitement. The evening takes a dark turn when he collapses into his coffee not long after a scathing review goes live on his blog. Surfusion's owners are prime suspects for his murder but Tanya is convinced of their innocence and vows to clear their names. As Tanya digs deeper, what at first seems like an open and shut case becomes increasingly complex. Is the famous critic even the intended victim of the crime? Tanya Bowe has her work cut out as hidden motives lead to simmering tensions among her friends. With time running out and Surfusion's future on the line, can Tanya unmask the culprit before it's too late? Perfect for fans of cozy mysteries, this gripping tale of deception, friendship and culinary intrigue will keep you guessing until the very end. Buy it now and solve the mystery for yourself. Betrayal of the Cloak Scott Stanley, 2014-03-05 Former Navy JAG officer Charlotte Morris is hit by tragedy when her English grandmother, who is her closest friend, dies unexpectedly. Now Charley must travel to Britain and sort out the details of her grandmother's estate. But what begins as a routine trip soon takes a dangerous turn when Charley uncovers startling new information. Her grandmother held a secret that Charley now claims as her own, one that points to a centuries-old mystery that could rewrite American history. Charley's mundane life as a government attorney is turned upside down when she and two friends embark on the pursuit for a fortune in missing gold. Charley has become a treasure hunter and her adventure takes her from London to New York and even to her quaint childhood home in Connecticut. Soon the three friends find themselves in serious danger and the victims of a treacherous and sinister twist. Will they find the gold or become victims of its cursed past? Mountains of Dawn Rene Natan, 2012 Why did I write Mountains of Dawn When I was a little girl my house was destroyed causing my parents to take us to live in the countryside for a while we were short of everything including toys The change was paramount This event inspired my story many years later I asked myself What if I had lost not only my house and my toys but also my parents I would have been shuffled around from foster to foster home And then How would a little orphan raised up to the school age in comfort react to this tragic situation This is how the persona of Tanya Caldwell was born How did I build Tanya's character As a writer of fiction I had to give Tanya some good qualities and some weakness Since she was going to be the main character I also had to give her some latitude So Tanya is a talented painter a fact that opens the door to a scholarship she also naive and prone to trust people without questioning When a big sum of money set up as a trust fund by her late parents comes to light the people who were responsible for her parents' death enter in action And they are not alone as their associates are linked in various fashions to other criminal rings one of which is a cosca mafiosa The story starts in Vermeil Ontario a fictional town near Toronto and wanders in Italy and Brazil When her life is threatened for the third time Tanya resorts to the protection of the Invicta a private company that provides her with a bodyguard and strongly suggests her to relocate Since she has inherited a very old mansion on the Italian Riviera Tanya moves there canvas brushes and easel with her Her artistic life continues but she has to leave her friends behind A publisher of art books Kevin Matwin and a friend of his Luigi Amedeo Count of Monteturro enter the scene and at first they are only good neighbors offering help and empathy But then Now what Tanya does while living on the Mediterranean shores Does she stay secluded or dare to go out and make new friends Will the criminals who took advantage of her parents surface again How would they find her Will innocent Tanya trust the worst killer of all Would she find love in her forced retreat Would the Invicta help her once again I will answer these questions as the plot of Mountains of Dawn unrolls not one chapter without suspense or a gripping action For what audience The novel falls into the romantic suspense genre and therefore may attract more women than men but the plot and the mafia intrigue may interest male readers as well Where did I get the information I needed A substantial amount of research is always needed to immerse the reader in an environment that is actual and as close to reality as possible I found information on the customs of the cosche
