Songs For Relinquishing The Earth:

Songs for Relinquishing the Earth Jan Zwicky, 1998 Poetry Winner of the 1999 Governor General's Award for Poetry and shortlisted for the 1999 Pat Lowther Award and the 1999 Dorothy Livesay Award for Poetry BC Book Prize SONGS FOR RELINQUISHING THE EARTH contains many poems of praise and grief for the imperiled earth drawing frequently on Jan Zwicky's experience as a musician and philosopher and on the landscapes of the prairies and rural Ontario SONGS FOR RELINQUISHING THE EARTH was first published by the author in 1996 as a handmade book each copy individually sewn for its reader in response to a request It appeared between plain covers on recycled stock with a small photo of lavender fields pasted into each copy The only publicity was word of mouth Part of Jan Zwicky's reason for having the author be the maker and distributor of the book was a desire to connect the acts of publication and publicity with the initial act of composition to have a book whose public gestures were in keeping with the intimacy of the art She also believed the potential audience was small enough that she could easily sew enough copies to fill requests as they came in While succeeding in recalling poetry's public life to its roots she was wrong about the size of that audience and her ability to keep up with demand as word spread Hence this facsimile edition In publishing it Brick Books has attempted to remain as faithful as possible to the spirit of those original gestures while making it possible for more readers to have access to this remarkable book Digressions in Deep

Time Declan Lloyd, Warren Mortimer, 2024-06-18 Deep time is a term which attempts to capture temporal scales far beyond human comprehension These are stretches of time epitomised by geological and cosmic scale processes vast enough to make the entirety of human existence appear as little more than a footnote The past few years have seen a boom in texts dedicated to the study of deep time extending across a broad range of disciplines which fall markedly outside of its geological roots These studies are unified by two ideas in particular that deep time thinking and ecocriticism should be considered in conjunction and that literature and the arts play a vital role in fostering a deep time awareness Digressions in Deep Time is the first collection of essays which considers the multifarious representations of deep time across literature and the arts assembling the work of a wide range of prominent scholars whose research frequently engages with temporality and ecocriticism Featured contributions include work by the Pulitzer prize winning author John McPhee who popularised the term deep time in the late seventies as well as chapters by Richard Irvine author of An Anthropology of Deep Time Benjamin Morgan author of The Outward Mind and Andrew Tate author of Apocalyptic Fiction A Companion to the Philosophy of Literature Garry L. Hagberg, Walter Jost, 2015-02-16 This monumental collection of new and recent essays from an international team of eminent scholars represents the best contemporary critical thinking relating to both literary and philosophical studies of literature Helpfully groups essays into the field's main sub categories among them Relations Between Philosophy and Literature Emotional Engagement and the Experience of Reading Literature and the Moral Life and Literary Language Offers a combination of analytical precision and literary richness Represents an unparalleled work of reference for
