Songworks I Singing In The Education Of Children:

SongWorks: Singing in the education of children Peggy D. Bennett, Douglas R. Bartholomew, 1997 Elementary classroom teachers too often lack the confidence to present music to their students because they themselves have little formal training in this area SONGWORKS emphasizes singing as the means to teaching music in the elementary classroom The authors assert that everyone sings as a family on a car trip singing as a child singing the national anthem at a baseball game singing Happy Birthday therefore this is the most natural and effective basis for teaching music and builds confidence among future teachers Teaching General Music Carlos R. Abril, Brent M. Gault, 2016-01-06 General music is informed by a variety of teaching approaches and methods These pedagogical frameworks guide teachers in planning and implementing instruction Established approaches to teaching general music must be understood critically examined and possibly re imagined for their potential in school and community music education programs Teaching General Music brings together the top scholars and practitioners in general music education to create a panoramic view of general music pedagogy and to provide critical lenses through which to view these frameworks The collection includes an examination of the most prevalent approaches to teaching general music including Dalcroze Informal Learning Interdisciplinary Kodaly Music Learning Theory Orff Schulwerk Social Constructivism and World Music Pedagogy In addition it provides critical analyses of general music and teaching systems in light of the ways children around the world experience music in their lives Rather than promoting or advocating for any single approach to teaching music this book presents the various approaches in conversation with one another Highlighting the perceived and documented benefits limits challenges and potentials of each Teaching General Music offers myriad lenses through which to re read re think and re practice these approaches Songworks II Peggy D.

Bennett, Douglas R. Bartholomew, 1998-10-26 This methods text for the music specialist focuses on teaching children the sounds of music singing and the symbols of music reading and writing music notation With over 75 Mini Lessons this text offers general principles and specific ways to teach elements of rhythm melody and structure and help children learn to read write and enjoy music The text addresses the four major challenges of teaching music how to translate the aural sense of music into visual and kinesthetic experiences for young children how to organize musical sounds how to explore the patterns of music in temporal rather than static contexts and how to engage the students as performers of the music studied through singing moving and playing classroom instruments
