Hopi Stories of Witchcraft, Shamanism, and Magic Ekkehart Malotki,Ken Gary,2006-02-01 The traditional Hopi world as reflected in Hopi oral literature is infused with magic a seamless tapestry of everyday life and the supernatural That magic and wonder are vividly depicted in this marvelous collection of authentic folktales For the Hopis the spoken or sung word can have a magical effect on others Witchcraft the wielding of magic for selfish purposes by a powaqa or sorcerer has long been a powerful malevolent force Sorcerers are said to have the ability to change into animals such as a crow a coyote a bat or a skeleton fly and hold their meetings in a two tiered kiva to the northeast of Hopi territory Shamanism the more benevolent but equally powerful use of magic for healing was once commonplace but is no longer practiced among the Hopis Shamans or povosyaqam often used animal familiars and quartz crystals to help them to see diagnose and cure illnesses Spun through these tales are supernatural beings otherworldly landscapes magical devices and medicines and shamans and witches One story tells about a man who follows his wife one night and discovers that she is a witch while another relates how a jealous woman uses the guise of an owl to make a rival woman s baby sick Other tales include the account of a boy who is killed by kachinas and then resurrected as a medicine man and the story of a huge rattlesnake a giant bear and a mountain lion that forever guard the entrance to Maski the Land of the Dead    The Australian Race Edward Micklethwaite Curr,1886

This book is the first substantial study of Islamization in any part of Inner Asia from any perspective and the first to emphasize conversion narratives as important sources for understanding the dynamics of Islamization Challenging the prevailing notions of the nature of Islam in Inner Asia it explores how conversion to Islam was woven together with indigenous Inner Asian religious values and thereby incorporated as a central and defining element in popular discourse about communal origins and identity The book traces the many echoes of a single conversion narrative through six centuries the previously unknown recounting of the dramatic contest in which the khan zbek adopted Islam at the behest of a Sufi saint named Baba T kles DeWeese provides the English language translation of this and another text as well as translations and analyses of a wide range of passages from historical sources and epic and folkloric materials Not only does this study deepen our understanding of the peoples of Central Asia involved in so much turmoil today but it also provides a model for other scholars to emulate in looking at the process of Islamization and communal religious conversion in general as it occurred elsewhere in the world    The Jesuit Relations and Allied Documents Reuben Gold Thwaites,1898    The Sorceress Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret),1893    "The" Jesuit-Relations and Allied Documents : Travels and Explorations of the Jesuit
