Sort Of A Place Like Home:

No Place Like Home: Ancient Near Eastern Houses and Households Laura Battini, Aaron Brody, Sharon R. Steadman, 2022-10-06 This book had its genesis in a series of 6 popular and well attended ASOR conference sessions on Household Archaeology in the Ancient Near East. The 18 chapters are organized in three thematic sections: Architecture as Archive of Social Space, The Active Household, and Ritual Space at Home. There's No Place Like Home United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging, 1988. No Place Like Home Christopher Carrington, 2009-01-14 In this rich, surprising portrait of the world of lesbian and gay relationships, Christopher Carrington unveils the complex and artful ways that gay people create and maintain both homes and chosen families for themselves. Carefully separating stereotype from reality, Carrington investigates family in the gay and lesbian community. Relying upon interviews and observation, the author analyzes the loves and routings of 52 diverse lesbian, gay, and bisexual couples in the Bay area. He closes the work with a discussion of the raging same sex marriage debate and posits an enlightened solution to this dilemma. Library Journal. No Place Like Home Charlene White, 2024-09-05. White, one of Britain's boldest journalists, has produced a warm, witty, delightful memoir which deserves to be widely read. Sathnam Sanghera, author of Empireland. A fascinating read written by a wonderful woman, Carol Vorderman. To feel as though you belong and knowing who you are are both the most important necessities of life and essential to one's wellbeing. This historic inspirational book demonstrates that Baroness Floella Benjamin OM DBE. Home is a vital base for us to thrive yet for some the question of where home is isn't as simple as an address. Depending on circumstance, home may not simply be where we rest, eat, and sleep. With the concept of home comes questions of ancestry, identity, and belonging, and the understanding that there is no one fixed idea of what or where home is. In No Place Like Home, Charlene White boldly shares her own story and understanding of home as a Jamaican Londoner exploring all the smells, memories, and voices from her childhood. Alongside her personal story, White interviews eight individuals who give their perspectives on home and their experiences that are shaped by myriad events from difficult family situations to desperate political upheaval and war. No Place Like Home is a powerful and heartfelt exploration of family, food, and finding your place as well as the moments in history that have changed the way we feel about the simplest of terms: home.

No Place Like Home Mary Higgins Clark, 2011-11-29. Liza Barclay, aged 10, shot her mother while trying to protect her from her violent stepfather, ex-FBI agent Charley Foster. Despite her stepfather's claim that it was a deliberate act, the Juvenile Court ruled the death an accident. Many people, however, agreed with Foster and tabloids compared Liza to the infamous murderer Lizzie Borden, pointing even to the similarity in name. Growing up with adoptive parents who tried to erase every trace of her past, her name is changed to Celia. Always, though, the fear hung over her and the family that someday her vengeful stepfather would reappear to harm her. Aged 25, a successful interior designer, she marries a childless sixty-year-old widower and they have a son. Before their marriage, she had confided her earlier life to her husband. Two years on, on his deathbed he tells her that he would want her to re marry but makes her swear never to reveal her past to anyone so that their son would not carry the burden of this family tragedy a promise that plunges her into a new cycle of violence Three years later happily re married Celia is shocked when her second husband presents her with a gift the house where she killed her mother When the real estate agent who has made the sale recognises her and soon after is murdrered Celia is accused of the crime Once again she is home the place where she is stamped as a murdereress The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1929 Art-Union,1899 Vol for 1867 includes Illustrated catalogue of the Paris Universal Exhibition The Housewife,1886 The Home-maker Marion Harland,1890
