Soul City Thomas Healy, 2021-02-02 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice 2021 Hooks National Book Award Winner The fascinating forgotten story of the 1970s attempt to build a city dedicated to racial equality in the heart of Klan Country In 1969 with America's cities in turmoil and racial tensions high civil rights leader Floyd McKissick announced an audacious plan he would build a new city in rural North Carolina open to all but intended primarily to benefit Black people Named Soul City the community secured funding from the Nixon administration planning help from Harvard and the University of North Carolina and endorsements from the New York Times and the Today show Before long the brand new settlement built on a former slave plantation had roads houses a health care center and an industrial plant By the year 2000 projections said Soul City would have fifty thousand residents But the utopian vision was not to be The race baiting Jesse Helms newly elected as senator from North Carolina swore to stop government spending on the project Meanwhile the liberal Raleigh News Observer mistakenly claimed fraud and corruption in the construction effort Battered from the left and the right Soul City was shut down after just a decade Today it is a ghost town and its industrial plant erected to promote Black economic freedom has been converted into a prison In a gripping poignant narrative acclaimed author Thomas Healy resurrects this forgotten saga of race capitalism and the struggle for equality Was it an impossible dream from the beginning Or a brilliant idea thwarted by prejudice and ignorance And how might America be different today if Soul City had been allowed to succeed

The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references
