Ink Dances in Limbo Jessica Yeung,2008-07-01 In this pioneering study of the entire written works of Gao Xingjian China's first winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature Jessica Yeung analyses each group of his writing and argues for a reading of Gao's writing as a phenomenon of cultural translation his adoption of Modernism in the 1980s is a translation of the European literary paradigm and his attempt at postmodernist writing in the 1990s and 2000s is the effect of an exilic nihilism expressive of a diasporic subjectivity struggling to translate himself into his host culture Thus Dr Yeung looks at Gao's works from a double perspective in terms of their relevance both to China and to the West Avoiding the common polarized approaches to Gao's works her dual approach means that she neither extolls them as the most brilliant works of contemporary Chinese literature eligible for elevation to the metaphysical level nor dismisses them as nothing more than elitist and misogynist mediocre writings rather she sees this important body of work in a more nuanced way This book is suitable for all readers who are interested in contemporary Chinese culture and literature It is particularly valuable to students who are keen to engage with the issue of contemporary China West cultural relationships

A Cultural History of the Soul Kocku von Stuckrad,2022-02-15 The soul which dominated many intellectual debates at the beginning of the twentieth century has virtually disappeared from the sciences and the humanities Yet it is everywhere in popular culture from holistic therapies and new spiritual practices to literature and film to ecological and political ideologies Ignored by scholars it is hiding in plain sight in a plethora of religious psychological environmental and scientific movements This book uncovers the history of the concept of the soul in twentieth century Europe and North America Beginning in fin de si cle Germany Kocku von Stuckrad examines a fascination spanning philosophy the sciences the arts and the study of religion as well as occultism and spiritualism against the backdrop of the emergence of experimental psychology He then explores how and why the United States witnessed a flowering of ideas about the soul in popular culture and spirituality in the latter half of the century Von Stuckrad examines an astonishingly wide range of figures and movements ranging from Ernest Renan Martin Buber and Carl Gustav Jung to the Esalen Institute deep ecology and revivals of shamanism animism and paganism to Rachel Carson Ursula K Le Guin and the Harry Potter franchise Revealing how the soul remains central to a culture that is only seemingly secular this book casts new light on the place of spirituality religion and metaphysics in Europe and North America today
