University Police investigation, which concluded by police statements to the court that the man was recognized. In addition, despite the fact that the court clearly knew that the man's description was accurate, this witness stated without qualification that the man's description was correct. Based on the foregoing, the court concluded that the University Police investigation, which concluded by police statements to the court that the man was recognized, should not be used to impeach the witness's testimony.

1970s "silver" hydrogen batteries. Prismacell used these batteries for its first products—recreational 100-watt incandescent lamps, small C-candles, and small 100-watt blue-tinted heat lamps. Recently, based on customer feedback, we have developed common 100-watt, 120-volt incandescent lamps and 100-watt incandescent lamps with a color temperature of 3000K. These lamps are designed to provide a color temperature similar to incandescent lamps.
