Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of im prison ment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods Thinking about the Enlightenment Martin Davies,2016-03-31 Thinking about the Enlightenment looks beyond the current parameters of studying the Enlightenment to the issues that can be understood by reflecting on the period in a broader context Each of the thirteen original chapters by an international and interdisciplinary team of contributors illustrates the problematic legacy of the Enlightenment and the continued ramifications of its thinking since the eighteenth century Together they consider whether modernity can see its roots in the intellectual revolution of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries The collection is divided into six sections preceded by a comprehensive introduction to the field and the most recent scholarship on the period Across the sections the contributors consider modern day encounters with Enlightenment thinking including Kant s moral philosophy the conflict between reason and faith the significance of the Enlightenment of law and the gender inequality that persisted throughout the eighteenth century By examining specific encounters with the problematic results of Enlightenment concerns the contributors are able to illuminate and offer new perspectives on topics such as human nature race politics gender and rationality Drawing from history philosophy literature and anthropology this book enables students and academics alike to take a fresh look at the Enlightenment and its legacy in the modern world Annotated Chaucer bibliography Mark Allen,Stephanie Amsel,2015-11-01 An extremely thorough expertly compiled and crisply annotated comprehensive bibliography of Chaucer scholarship between 1997 and 2010 Notes and Queries: a Medium of Inter-communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc ,1896 Modern Radio Communication John Hereward Reyner,1944 A Text-book of Human Physiology Austin Flint,1879 Journal of Speech and Hearing Research ,1958 Voice of Masonry ,1896 The American Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1870 A Cross-aged Literacy Program Fenice Burnetta Boyd,1996 Appletons' Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events ,1899 The works of Samuel Richardson, with a prefatory chapter of biogr. criticism by L. thesis of this volume is that writing done by students who control their own topics who have genuine purposes for writing and have a real known audience is quite different and valuable in its own right It forms a rich source of information about how young students think manage their social interactions and use language with competence to get things done By selecting dialogue journal writing as a corpus for analysis it is possible to observe children s communicative competence in using written language purposefully apart from their ability to master a particular form of writing The central argument is that dialogue journal communication represents a kind of personal literacy prior to and more comprehensive than the particular literacies emphasized and assessed in schools The contents include a practitioner s view of the practice itself and a summary of the research study methods developed to analyze interactive written conversations Appletons' Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events ,1875 Electrical Communication ,1928 Proceedings of the Fourth Workshop on Future Trends of Distributed Computing Systems, September 22-24, 1993, Lisbon, Portugal ,1993 Proceedings of the 4th Workshop on title held in Lisbon Portugal in September 1993 Sessions are devoted to multimedia experiments system management multimedia protocols future systems groups and cooperative work fault tolerance design of distributed applications object oriented systems network performance software design and testing real time systems algorithms and protocols distributed network processing specification future networks and operating systems issues No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Information Security ,2004
