Talking Music William Duckworth, 1995 William Duckworth a cutting edge composer and musicologist himself spent more than a decade visiting the leading lights of new American music beginning with the music's spiritual godfather John Cage and progressing through the latest innovators His goal was to let the composers talk about their work in their own words to show how their personal lives and struggles to create their art colored their output to discuss seriously their aesthetic goals and to analyze their influences The discussions that result are free ranging but always focused revealing the many radically new approaches pioneered by these artists The life of the composer is one of struggle often against incredible odds in pursuit of an individual vision that is often misunderstood if not openly maligned by mainstream culture It is rare that a sympathetic ear is given to the composer's concerns rarer still that the composer gets a chance to discuss craft with another craftsman These enlightening interviews filled with personal revelations and the unique voice of each composer will delight fans of twentieth century music and the avant garde as well as anyone interested in the life of the arts Musical Magazine and Musical Courier, 1898
