Talking To Strangers Brittingham Prize In Poetry Series

Stefanie Marlis

Talking To Strangers Brittingham Prize In Poetry Series:

Talking to Strangers Patricia Dobler, 1986 In her first book of poems Patricia Dobler records her memories of the Ohio mill town where she grew up in the 1950s but the poems range over time and the memories of others as well her immigrant Hungarian grandparents her parent's tensions during hard times Years spilled on the kitchen table picked over like beans or old bills the dangers losses and occasional triumphs of hard working men and women

Slow Joy Stefanie Marlis, 1989 In Slow Joy Stefanie Marlis's first full length collection the poems move across boundaries across worlds difficulties and happinesses The book's persona and concerns consciousness suffering and destruction love and death are not unusual What is is that the collection as a whole breaks through pain and sorrowful histories and is finally uplifting even redemptive in the sense that prayers are redemptive And the poems in their serious strength urge the reader to draw a parallel between poetry and the silent prayers monks believe redeem the world Marlis writes poems that are potentially redemptive at least for the poet The poems in Slow Joy are wrought with animate imagery with story and with long running lines sprung with falling and rising sounds Marlis's poetry translates pain slowly into joy or as the poet has written makes the bearable a gate

Sea of Faith John Brehm, 2004 In a masterful blending of lyric and narrative Sea of Faith ranges across interior states and external worlds From the Sierra Nevadas to New York City subways from an imagined friendship with Lao Tzu to a meditation on Coney Island from a comic and poignant classroom discussion to a sexual fantasy John Brehm's poems explore the human predicament with tenderness compassion and humor

Brief Landing on the Earth's Surface Juanita Brunk, 1996-08-15 In Brief Landing on the Earth's Surface even the most ordinary moments are infused with an awareness of the lost past and a kind of prescience of the future From one setting to another Tidewater Virginia rural Pennsylvania Greece New York City these poems give voice to the human longing for permanence home and connection in the face of a constantly changing reality

Old & New Testaments Lynn Powell, 1995 The poems of Old & New Testaments explore Lynn Powell's Southern Baptist upbringing and how that history echoes through her adult experiences of sexual love self knowledge loss and motherhood Powell's poems chronicle a life lush with the ordinary where truths reveal themselves in the same sad immutable text of a withered face and in a child's rickety letters tilting across the page When grace answers grief in these poems it is not with reassurance but with a call to the narrow path to Love

And Her Soul Out Of Nothing Olena Kalaytiak Davis, 1997-10-01 Both contemporary and other worldly Davis's lyrical poetry is a fearless expression of the spirit which defines the very essence of our beings

Acts of Contortion Anna Meek, 2002 In poems that are by turns witty lush and unflinching Acts of Contortion explores the gestures of both hurtfulness and compassion Whether set in a shelter for battered women in the midst of a political demonstration or at the center of an orchestra the poems pursue the place of language in an injurious world The political conscience at work is feminist pacifist and at odds with itself Anna George Meek finds that the brutal and the compassionate are sometimes indistinguishable born of our need to make contact outside of ourselves These gestures of music of touch of poetry appear in the poems as the violin domestic abuse and words to comfort a woman in pain

 The poems argue difficult yet imperative the attempt to gesture beyond ourselves is an act of contortion The Red Virgin
