The Art of Impressionism Anthea Callen, 2000-01-01 Drawing on scientific studies of pigments and materials artists treatises colourmen's archives and contemporary and modern accounts Anthea Callen demonstrates how raw materials and paintings are profoundly interdependent She analyses the material constituents of oil painting and the complex processes of making entailed in all aspects of artistic production discussing in particular oil painting methods for landscapists and the impact of plein air light on figure painting studio practice and display Insisting that the meanings of paintings are constituted by and within the cultural matrices that produced them Callen argues that the real modernity of the Impressionist enterprise lies in the painters material practices BOOK JACKET Dictionnaire de l'art contemporain Raymond
