Tao And The Daimon Segments Of A Religious Inquiry:

The Tao and the Daimon Robert C. Neville, 1982-01-01 The Tao and the Daimon examines a central theme in religious studies the question of the authority and authenticity of traditional religious faith and practice tao in light of the challenge from the spirit of critical reason Socrates daimon From a non judgmental historical standpoint it develops the dialectical relation between religion and rational inquiry Neville employs a philosophical system to set a task for reflection making it possible to see how Eastern and Western religious traditions differ overlap contradict and reinforce one another The central chapters are detailed studies of theologically interesting elements in Christianity Buddhism taoism and Neoconfucianism How can one judge of the higher truths of another religion without having practiced it Can the tao and the daimon after all be reconciled purely in the conceptual realm of speculative philosophy Neville recognizes the very real differences between conceptualizing and practicing and the very real differences in understanding that can result At the same time he transcends the problem by identifying and exemplifying in his own work speculative philosophy as a tao in itself a new locus of religious significance our own scholarly interpretation new creations of the holy out of practiced scholarly piety toward the old

SCM Core Text: Christian Approaches to Other Faiths Paul Hedges, 2013-02-11 The textbook begins with a chapter on exclusivism inclusivism particularity and pluralism and one on interfaith Each chapter explains the history rationale and workings of the various approaches Moreover each is divided into sub sections dealing with various forms of each approach so that each may be appreciated in its individuality i e the chapter on Inclusivism will include sections on fulfilment theology anonymous Christians etc The second part of this textbook deals with attitudes towards different faiths considering the problems and relations that exist with Christian approaches to each It will deal with the world s major faiths as well as primal religions and new religious movements The introduction and conclusion will deal with some central themes that run throughout in particular the questions of the Trinity and concepts of salvation In each section reference will be made to the key texts discussed in the Reader which accompanies this 9780334041155 however the work may be read as a stand alone text Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy, 2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material Confucian-Christian Encounters in Historical and Contemporary Perspective, 1991 The Participatory Turn Jorge N. Ferrer, Jacob H. Sherman, 2008-10-23 Can we take seriously religious experience spirituality and mysticism without reducing them to either cultural linguistic by products or simply asserting their validity as a dogmatic fact The contributors to this volume argue that we can and they offer a new way the participatory turn which proposes that individuals and communities have an integral and irreducible role in bringing forth ontologically rich religious worlds They explore the ways this approach weaves together and gives voice to a number of robust trends in contemporary religious scholarship including the renewed study of lived spirituality the postmodern emphasis on embodied and gendered subjectivity the admission of alternate epistemic perspectives the irreducibility of religious pluralism and the pragmatist emphasis on transformation all trends that raise serious challenges to the currently prevalent linguistic paradigm The first part of the book situates the participatory turn in the context of contemporary Religious Studies the second part shows how this approach can be applied to various global traditions ancient and contemporary from Western esotericism to Jewish mysticism Christianity Hinduism Sufism and socially engaged Buddhism

The Divine Matrix Joseph A. Bracken, 1997-01-01 The Divine Matrix represents a bold scholarly attempt to provide a framework for discussing these and other questions that will keep the interreligious dialogue project from grinding to a halt In this book philosopher and theologian Joseph Bracken first locates the Infinite as transcendent source and goal of human activity as the notion common to virtually all the major world religions He suggests that the Infinite is prototypically experienced not as an entity but as an ongoing activity the principle of activity for all beings This idea is consistent with the notion of eternal and continuous motion is Aristotle with the act of being actus essendi in the theology of Thomas Aquinas and Meister Eckhart and with the ground of being of Heidegger and Shelling as well as with Whitehead's definition of creativity The divine Matrix proposes that the Infinite thus identified be understood as a nondual reality an activity that does not exist in itself but only in the entities which it thereby empowers to exist This Bracken argues becomes the key to understanding ultimate reality within the different world religions

Process Studies, 1990 Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues Charles Wei-hsun Fu, Gerhard E. Spiegler, 1989-06-26 A monumental collection essential for academic and seminary libraries and highly recommended for public libraries as well Library Journal An important new voice in contemporary philosophical theological discourse this book highlights a number of issues that have been of particular concern to scholars religious leaders politicians and the general public since the end of World War II The contributors purpose is to force a reexamination of basic concerns in religion religious beliefs and religious studies and to encourage both a reshaping of entrenched attitudes and a continuation of meaningful dialogue among different religious groups To this end they address a wide range of topics from the perplexing problem of relativism and the issue of feminism in the church to questions of Muslim identity and Hindu Christian dialogue Divided into two principal parts the book begins by exploring a broad spectrum of religious issues Norbert Samuelson analyzes theism and atheism in Western religious philosophy Ernest Stoeffler focuses on the parallel trends of conservatism and liberalism in American Protestantism Gustavo Benavides examines religion and modernization in Latin America Additional papers address a universal theology Christianity and sociopolitical thought postwar neo Confucian philosophy among other topics In the second section the contributors turn to interreligious dialogues examining the ways in which various religions have attempted to forge deeper mutual understanding often in the face of rising sociopolitical tensions Taken together these essays offer an eloquent testimonial to the critical importance of interreligious dialogue in contemporary society Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues will be an important addition to the reading list for studies in world religions contemporary religious issues and comparative religion
