Tasks And Communicating In Language Classrooms:

Tasks and Communicating in Language Classrooms James F. Lee, 2000 Tasks and Communicating in Language Classrooms is a significant new work in the area of classroom communication This text takes a principled approach to how one can take the basic question and answer paradigm found in many if not most language textbooks and reformulate it into interactive tasks that place communication in the hands of the student learners This text is practical in terms of task development and task based test design and development and simultaneously well grounded in theory and research Continuing in the tradition of bringing theory research and practice together into one volume Lee s work is a welcome addition to the McGraw Hill Second Language Professional Series Authenticity across Languages and Cultures Leo Will, Wolfgang Stadler, Irma Eloff, 2022-11-10 This volume centres around concepts of personal and cultural authenticity as they play out in various contexts of foreign language teaching and learning worldwide The chapters cover a wide range of contexts and disciplines including both theoretical and empirical work together they comprise both a rigorous analysis of authenticity in language teaching and a step away from notions of native speakerism and cultural essentialism with which it is often associated Written by a group of scholars working across several continents the chapters offer diverse perspectives regarding the role language plays in processes of personal growth learning development self actualisation and power dynamics The book addresses the theoretical and philosophical nature of authenticity while remaining grounded in the teaching and learning of languages with authenticity viewed as a practical concern that guides our actions and beliefs The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of authenticity as well as foreign language teachers interested in the theoretical underpinnings of their practice Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 1992: Language, Communication, and Social Meaning James E. Alatis, 1993-10-01 This volume based on the forty third annual Georgetown University Round Table covers a variety of topics ranging from the relationship of language and philosophy through language policy to discourse analysis Research & Creative Activity ,2000 Teaching and Learning of English in Secondary Schools Casmir Chanda, 2008 By exploring the ways that teachers and pupils can help to improve classroom practices this book shows how education planners and practitioners can effect improvements in schools even in situations of very scarce resources It is suitable for those who are working to improve English language teaching and learning
