

The background of the book cover is a historical painting. It depicts a wide, open landscape with rolling hills in the distance. In the foreground, there are several figures: two men in dark clothing are seated on the left, looking towards the center. A horse is being ridden in the middle ground. To the right, a large, gnarled tree stands prominently. Near its base, a group of people is gathered, and a small, simple hut is visible in the background. The overall scene suggests a colonial or early settlement period in Tasmania.
