Date, Hugh Darwen, Nikos Lorentzos, 2014-08-13 Time and Relational Theory provides an in depth description of temporal database systems which provide special facilities for storing querying and updating historical and future data Traditionally database management systems provide little or no special support for temporal data at all This situation is changing because Cheap storage enables retention of large volumes of historical data in data warehouses Users are now faced with temporal data problems and need solutions Temporal features have recently been incorporated into the SQL standard and vendors have begun to add temporal support to their DBMS products Based on the groundbreaking text Temporal Data the Relational Model Morgan Kaufmann 2002 and new research led by the authors Time and Relational Theory is the only book to offer a complete overview of the functionality of a temporal DBMS Expert authors Nikos Lorentzos Hugh Darwen and Chris Date describe an approach to temporal database management that is firmly rooted in classical relational theory and will stand the test of time This book covers the SQL 2011 temporal extensions in depth and identifies and discusses the temporal functionality still missing from SQL Understand how the relational model provides an ideal basis for taming the complexities of temporal databases Learn how to analyze and evaluate commercial temporal products with this timely and important information Be able to use sound principles in designing and using temporal databases Understand the temporal support recently added to SQL with coverage of the new SQL features in this unique accurate and authoritative reference Appreciate the benefits of a truly relational approach to the problem with this clear user friendly presentation Joint Workshop of the German Research Training Groups in Computer Science Johannes Hölzl, 2011 MEDINFO 2007 K.A. Artificial Intelligence for Smart Health: Learning, Simulation, and Optimization Bing Yao,Nathan Gaw,Hyo Kyung Lee,2025-03-07 With rapid developments in medical sensing and imaging we now live in an era of data explosion in which large amounts of data are readily available and accessible in the clinical environment The fast growing biomedical and healthcare data provide unprecedented opportunities for data driven scientific knowledge discovery and clinical decision support However it is widely acknowledged that biomedical and healthcare data contain high dimensions large volumes missing values imbalanced classes heterogeneous sources multi modalities and measurement noises These inherent features pose significant barriers to the translation of data into meaningful clinical actions Thus there arises an urgent and compelling need for the development of innovative machine learning simulation and optimization algorithms to cope with the unique challenges associated with biomedical and healthcare data facilitating the transformation of data into actionable insights for smart health Our Research Topic aims at catalyzing synergies among biomedical informatics machine learning computer simulation operations research systems engineering and other related fields with three specific goals 1 develop cutting edge data driven models to accelerate scientific knowledge discovery in biomedicine from medical and healthcare data collected from laboratory systems imaging systems and medical and sensing devices 2 develop advanced simulation and calibration algorithms to build personalized digital twins by effectively assimilating patient specific medical data with population level computer models facilitating precision medical planning 3 develop innovative optimization algorithms for optimal medical decision making in the face of uncertainty factors conflicting objectives and complex trade offs This Research Topic will offer a timely collection of information to benefit the researchers and practitioners working in the broad fields of biomedical informatics healthcare data analytics medical image processing and health related artificial intelligence By harnessing the potential of machine learning computational simulation and mathematical optimization techniques healthcare professionals
