Temporary Society:

The Temporary Society Warren G. Bennis, Philip Elliot Slater, 1968      Contemporary Russia as a Feudal Society V. Shlapentokh, Joshau Woods, 2007-11-26 The book offers a theoretical discussion of the feudal model and a preliminary application of the model to post Soviet Russia In addition to a review of the feudal model as an ideal type the author explains the analytical benefits of drawing comparisons between countries and across historical contexts Specifically contemporary Russia is compared to Western European countries during the Middle Ages and to the Soviet period in Russian history The book is devoted to illuminating the most important political social and economic characteristics of contemporary Russian society      Nested Ecology Edward T. Wimberley, 2009-05-29 Nested Ecology provides a pragmatic and functional approach to realizing a sustainable environmental ethic Edward T Wimberley asserts that a practical ecological ethic must focus on human decision making within the context of larger social and environmental systems Think of a set of mixing bowls in which smaller bowls sit within larger ones Wimberley sees the world in much the same way with personal ecologies embedded in social ecologies that in turn are nested within natural ecologies Wimberley urges a complete reconceptualization of the human place in the ecological hierarchy Going beyond the physical realms in which people live and interact he extends the concept of ecology to spirituality and the ecology of the unknown In doing so Wimberley defines a new environmental philosophy and a new ecological ethic      Report New York (State). in contemporary communities Informal Justice in Contemporary Society is motivated by the field's research practice gap and the lack of real world impact research in cross cultural settings The book contributes insights towards theory refinement and conflict resolution practice by addressing practical issues confronted by mediators in the field This innovative research path introduces a holistic approach to the study of informal justice in social context deploying multilevel ethnographic analysis to broaden the perspectives and understanding of conflict resolution in contemporary communities Locally it provides insights into conflict resolution in Israel in a mixed city of Arabs and Jews This book belongs on the reference shelf of essential reading for educators researchers and practitioners in conflict resolution and social studies including anthropological community legal and cultural fields
