WYNNE SOMMERS sat on the floor of her apartment and cupped her chin her pale brows drawn together in thought Do you know what I really need Laura Her friend snorted folding clothes into a large moving box Sure I know You need to have your head examined if you still intend to go through with this ridiculous idea No What I really need is a knight in shining armor A protector Laura shoved the box to one side and glared Oh for crying out loud Why don't you just wish for Prince Charming a palace and a million dollars while you're at it It's just as realistic She threw up her hands in despair Listen to me talking about realism and to you of all people A woman planning to marry a complete stranger wouldn't recognize reality if it bit her on the nose Yes Wynne questioned amusement clear in her voice Bit me where Oh forget it Laura muttered Why do I bother Wynne smiled not in the least offended by her friend's bluntness Because you care And in case you've forgotten I know all about reality and being realistic It hasn't worked for me which is why I'm willing to give the alternative a try I know Laura said contritely But to marry a complete stranger My point exactly Since I am going to marry a complete stranger why not pick one with all the qualities I need Because it's crazy It's just asking for trouble Laura's gaze grew concerned Please don't do this There has to be another solution You know there isn't Wynne said with calm finality I've lost my job my apartment and I'm out of money This is the only option left It'll work out you'll see Laura frowned What do you mean you're out of money she demanded What happened to your savings I spent every last penny on my ticket to the ball I had to It was the only way to find a husband by the end of the month A long silence stretched between them Wynne knew she'd upset her friend but she had no choice From the moment she'd found out about the Cinderella Ball she'd known it was the answer to her prayers It had been a fluke that she'd seen the advertisement at all a newspaper left at the restaurant where she'd worked a gust of wind from an open doorway pages of newsprint blowing to the floor and And there it was A small elegant ad that had caught her eye and offered a chance of a lifetime The Cinderella Ball it had read Find romance Find your Prince Charming Find the woman of your dreams The Cinderella Ball offers the opportunity for immediate matrimony Come to the ball single and leave happily wed And it had given a phone number a number she'd called that very night A ticket to the ball had been exorbitant the application form detailed and thorough But she'd apparently passed whatever investigative process they required and been accepted as a guest to the ball Unable to resist Wynne crossed to the scarred dining table at the far end of the room and stared down at the thick gold embossed envelope she'd placed on her best remaining china plate It had arrived earlier that day hand delivered by a liveried messenger along with a card that read The Montagues wish you joy and success as you embark on your search for matrimonial happiness Taking a deep breath she opened the envelope again removing the white velvet pouch inside Reverently she ran a callused fingertip over the pouch then slid the surprisingly heavy gilt ticket from its nest The metallic wafer caught the light from the overhead bulb and shimmered as though alive flooding the drab room with
