Ten Thousand Miles With A Dog Sled:

Ten Thousand Miles with a Dog Sled Hudson Stuck, 2022-05-28 Ten Thousand Miles with a Dog Sled is a story by Hudson Stuck. The author depicts his travel in Alaska moving by sled dogs and the risks and difficulties one faces in such harsh conditions of nature.

Ten Thousand Miles With A Dog Sled Hudson Stuck, 2023-07-18 Ten Thousand Miles with a Dog Sled Hudson Stuck, 2007-03-01 Though born and raised in England explorer HUDSON STUCK 1865-1920 epitomized the adventurous New World spirit of the American West at its closing. Drawn by the wide open spaces Stuck an Episcopal priest and champion of muscular Christianity volunteered in 1904 to serve as the archdeacon of the Yukon; his spiritual domain encompassed 250 000 square miles of interior Alaska. In this dramatic 1914 work Stuck draws upon his eight years of continuous travels in this great wild country to paint an exhilarating portrait of a rugged land and the people who lived there. This is no mild tale of priestly ministering or zealous missionary work. Stuck all but eschews discussion of his actual work to regale us with tales of the gentle aboriginal population and some of the hardest and most adventurous white men in the world and warns against low down whites with no respect for native culture or the sanctity of the land. With this beautiful and untamed land again threatened by encroaching development this century old book remains a fresh and vital read. ALSO AVAILABLE FROM COSIMO Stuck's Ascent of Denali

A Window to Heaven Patrick Dean, 2021-03-02 The captivating and heroic story of Hudson Stuck an Episcopal priest and his team's history making summit of Denali In 1913 four men made a months long journey by dog sled to the base of the tallest mountain in North America Several groups had already tried but failed to reach the top of a mountain whose size occupying 120 square miles of the earth's surface and position as the Earth's northernmost peak of more than 6 000 meters elevation make it one of the world's deadliest mountains. Although its height from base to top is actually greater than Everest's, it is Denali's weather, not altitude, that have caused the great majority of fatalities over a hundred since 1903. Denali experiences weather more severe than the North Pole, with temperatures of forty below zero and winds that howl at 80 to 100 miles per hour for days at a stretch. But in 1913, none of this mattered to Hudson Stuck, a fifty-year-old Episcopal priest, Harry Karstens, the hardened Alaskan wilderness guide, Walter Harper, and Robert Tatum, both just in their twenties. They were all determined to be the first to set foot on top of Denali.

In A Window to Heaven, Patrick Dean brings to life this heart-pounding and spellbinding feat of this first ascent and paints a rich portrait of the frontier at the turn of the twentieth century. The story of Stuck and his team will lead us through the Texas frontier and Tennessee mountains to an encounter with Jack London at the peak of the Yukon Goldrush. We experience Stuck's awe at the rich Aleut and Athabascan indigenous traditions and his efforts to help preserve these ways of life. Filled with daring exploration and rich history, A Window to Heaven is a brilliant and spellbinding narrative of success against the odds.
