Terence Davies:

Revisiting Space Wendy Ellen Everett, Axel Goodbody, 2005 How does film construct space and what is the relationship between space and time in film These and other questions are explored in this collection of wide ranging challenging essays that re evaluate and extend recent theoretical debate in relation to the regional and national cinemas of Europe Writing Liverpool Michael Murphy, Deryn Rees-Jones, 2007-01-01 Beryl Bainbridge Clive Barker Terence Davies and J G Farrell represent only a handful of the fascinating and provocative writers who have emerged from the Liverpool literary scene in the past seventy five years Published in commemoration of Liverpool's 800th birthday in 2007 and in celebration of its status as a European City of Culture in 2008 Writing Liverpool presents a selection of essays and interviews with the filmmakers journalists cultural critics and novelists who have called the city home asking if there is a distinctive Liverpool voice and if so how we identify it Independent Filmmaking Around the Globe Doris Baltruschat, Mary P. Erickson, 2015-01-01 With chapters on under explored cinemas as well as traditional centres Independent Filmmaking around the Globe explores how contemporary independent filmmaking increasingly defines the global cinema of our time The Queer Encyclopedia of Film and Television Claude Summers, 2012-04-24 From Hollywood films to TV soap operas from Vegas extravaganzas to Broadway theater to haute couture this comprehensive encyclopedia contains over 200 entries and 200 photos that document the irrepressible impact of queer creative artists on popular culture How did Liberace's costumes almost kill him Which lesbian comedian spent her high school years as the best white cheerleader in Detroit For these answers and more fans can dip into The Queer Encyclopedia of Film Theater and Popular Culture Drawn from the fascinating online encyclopedia of queer arts and culture www.glbtq.com which the Advocate dubbed the Encyclopedia Britanniqueer this may be the only reference book in which RuPaul and Jean Cocteau jostle for space From the porn industry to the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence from bodybuilding to Dorothy Arzner it's a queer queer world and The Queer Encyclopedia is the indispensable guide readable authoritative and concise And perfect to read by candleabra The answers to the two questions above from the dry cleaning fumes Lily Tomlin

Film and Domestic Space Stefano Baschiera, 2020-05-28 Drawing on a broad range of theoretical disciplines and with case studies of directors such as Chantal Akerman Agnès Varda Claire Denis and Todd Haynes Amos Gitai Martin Ritt John Ford Ila Béka and Louise Lemoine this book goes beyond the representational approach to the analysis of domestic space in cinema in order to look at it as a dispositif 100 Queer Films Since Stonewall Chelsea McCracken, Matt Connolly, 2025-05-01 100 Queer Films identifies 100 films that shaped the trajectory of queer cinema connected with larger movements and showcased the artistry of queer filmmaking In addition to those films that already hold significant places in queer film canons this volume examines often overlooked titles By highlighting hidden gems alongside well known classics this book makes a valuable accessible contribution to queer film studies While queer films have existed since the beginning of cinema this book focuses on films released after the Stonewall uprising in 1969 Stonewall is considered a turning point for queer politics and representation and the 50 years since that event have generated an explosion of queer creativity The book describes significant formal elements of each film and connects them to their interrelated contexts By moving in chronological order it introduces a contemporary history of queer film and provides an overview of major developments in LGBTQ communities cultures and politics This volume presents a framework for understanding the value of queer film Screen Epiphanies Geoffrey Macnab, 2019-07-25 What I remember was that it was the first time a piece of fiction had had such a devastating emotional effect on me A lot of children remember seeing cartoons Pinocchio or Bambi or something that breaks their heart I remember seeing The Blue Angel and it breaking my heart It was the first time I realised there was an adult world that adults could damage each other or destroy each other emotionally It might have fed into a whole series of epiphanies about my own upbringing I was living in a family where my grandparents had separated in quite complex circumstances Perhaps it resonated with some elements of that to do with simply how love can be a rupturing and damaging emotion as well as a healing one Also to see somebody who is in an authority position made so small so diminished by the feeling of having no control Anthony Minghella The Blue Angel In a strange lethal way I was suddenly wildly attracted to the process of filmmaking even though it is described as a nightmare a matter of horror in that film There is a trancelike atmosphere Suddenly I was reminded that you can feel like it's a matter of life and death when you make a film It changed from being a mediocre feeling of emptiness in your life to something that feels necessary I realised that filmmaking can be many things and it can be narcotic in a way You can become addicted to it Thomas Vinterberg Hearts of Darkness Screen Epiphanies brings together 32 leading film makers to discuss the films that inspired them to pursue a career in the movie business or which influenced their own film making practice or which stayed with them because of their depictions of familiar communities intense human relationships or unknown worlds Beautifully illustrated with images from the films discussed Screen Epiphanies is a thought provoking and often moving insight into the creative process and the way in which artists are inspired by each other's work but also into the centrality of cinema in all our lives and its power to change our ambitions and how we see the world around us Terence Davies Michael Koresky, 2014-10-15 Called the most important British filmmaker of his generation Terence Davies made his reputation with modern classics like Distant Voices Still Lives and The Long Day Closes personal works exploring his fractured childhood in Liverpool His idiosyncratic and unorthodox narrative films defy easy categorization as their seeming existence within realism and personal memory cinema is undermined by an abstractness that makes the way he lays bare personal pain come across as distant even alien Film critic Michael Koresky explores the unique emotional tenor of Davies's work by focusing on four paradoxes within the director's oeuvre films that are autobiographical yet fictional melancholy yet elating conservative in tone and theme yet radically constructed and obsessed with the passing of time yet frozen in time and space Through these contradictions the films intricate designs reveal a cumulative deeply personal meditation on the self Koresky also analyzes how Davies's ongoing negotiation of and struggle with questions of identity related to his past and his homosexuality imbue the details and jarring juxtapositions in his films with a queer sensibility which is too often overlooked due to the complexity of Davies's work and his unfashionable ambivalence toward his own sexual orientation Terence Davies Screenplays, Volume I Terence introductions and previously unpublished archival material The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David
