Scarred Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists. Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban, Dominican, and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present. Through their diverse practices including painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, installation, video, and performance art, these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld marginality. The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony, exhibition histories, and theoretical frameworks from trauma, memory, and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art. Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory, a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others. By connecting different people, pasts, and places, Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it. This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds, highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance. By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice, Lewthwaite's work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society. Report United States. Fernández, 2000 Teresita Fernández Denise Markonish, 2017 This visually arresting book provides the first complete overview of artist Teresita Fernández's multi-faceted body of work. Teresita Fernández creates elaborate installations that pull viewers into other worlds and environments, playing with scale, material, and how we understand and navigate the landscape. The idea of wayfinding, moving from place to place or even getting lost, is critical to understanding Fernández's approach, which incorporates unconventional materials such as graphite, pyrite, dyed thread, polycarbonate tubes, gold, and malachite to explore how we look at and process our surroundings from land to sky, private to public. This book is a journey designed as a constellation of works rather than a chronological retrospective, inviting readers to explore Fernández's oeuvre through large, full-color illustrations, writings on place, references to literature, film, art history, and poetry alongside Fernández's own writings and critical essays. Organized into six sections: landscape, celestial, terrestrial, subterranean, cinematic, and radiance, which reflect themes recurring in Fernández's practice, this volume spans her full career. The result is a dramatically rich experience of getting to know an artist through her creative process, a rewarding journey that will satisfy general readers and scholars alike.
