Venice and the Veneto in the Early Renaissance John Easton Law, 2000 John Law is concerned here with the administration of the Venetian state in the late 14th and 15th centuries and specifically with its possessions on the mainland of Italy These gave Venice dangerously exposed and lengthy land frontiers and also included a number of cities whose loyalties were not to be taken for granted Verona Friuli and the Trentino are the focus of several articles while others look at the people and families involved and at Venice's relations with its powerful neighbours from Milan to Hungary The studies demonstrate the substantial nature of Venetian involvement with the Terraferma well established by the start of the 15th century and examine the impact on the Venetian government itself of these mainland dominions Montecassino and Benevento in the Middle Ages G. A. Loud, 2000 This second volume by Graham Loud focuses on two key centres of the south Italian church in the central Middle Ages The first section concentrates on the golden age of the abbey of Montecassino during the 11th and 12th centuries when it was at the height of its influence and three of its monks became popes The studies seek to place the abbey in its context examining its relations with the papacy Byzantium and the local nobility The second part deals with Benevento and the abbey of St Sophia and looks at its development and administration as well as the tensions that arose from its position as a papal enclave within the Kingdom of Sicily Based on extensive archival research the volume as a whole presents a fresh and original insight into the society of southern Italy from the coming of the Normans to its conquest by Charles of Anjou Bollettino ufficiale ,1882 Conférences d'archéologie chrétienne Marucchi (Orazio), 1897 International Aerospace Abstracts ,1984 Guida di Milano ,1884 Adolf Stieler's Handatlas über alte Theile der Erde und über das Weltgebäude Adolf Stieler, 18??
