A Deleuzian Century? Ian Buchanan, 1999 A critical engagement with the writings on Gilles Deleuze by scholars and translators of his work Originally published as a special edition of SAQ Summer 1997 Vol 96 3 it is both an introduction to and a critique of his work Symbolic Economies Jean-Joseph Goux, 1990 A major participant in the influential Tel Quel group in France Jean Joseph Goux here offers a bold reevaluation of both the Marxist economic model and the Freudian concept of the unconscious Symbolic Economies makes available for the first time in English generous selections from Goux's Freud Marx Economie et symbolique 1973 and Les iconoclastes 1978 Goux brings the theories of historical materialism and of psychoanalysis into play to illuminate and enrich each other and undertakes a compelling integration of the contributions of structuralism and post structuralism Looking closely at the work of such major figures as Lacan Derrida and Nietzsche Goux extends the implications of Marxism and Freudianism to an interdisciplinary semiotics of value and proposes a radical concept of exchange Literary theorists philosophers social scientists cultural historians and feminist critics alike will welcome this important and provocative work On the Genesis of Species Mivart (George), 1871 The theory of value, complete, the first 9 chapters of 'Capital'. Karl Marks, Karl Marx, 1895 Familial Forms Erin Murphy, 2010-12-09 Familial Forms is the first full length study to examine how literary writers engaged the politics of genealogy that helped define the century of revolution By demonstrating how conflicts over the family state analogy intersected with the period's battles over succession including the ascent of James I the execution of Charles I disputes over the terms of the Interregnum government the Restoration of Charles II the Exclusion Crisis the deposition of James II the ascent of William and Mary and Anne's failure to produce a surviving heir this study provides a new map of the seventeenth century politics of family in England Beginning with a reconsideration of Jacobean patriarchalism Familial Forms focuses on the work of John Milton Lucy Hutchinson John Dryden and Mary Astell From their contrasting political and gendered positions these authors contemplated and contested the relevance of marriage and kinship to government Their writing illuminates two crucial elements of England's conflicts First the formal qualities of poems and prose tracts reveal that not only was there a competition among different versions of the family state analogy but also a competition over its very status as an analogy Second through their negotiations of linear and nonlinear forms Milton Hutchinson Dryden and Astell demonstrate the centrality of temporality to the period's political battles Through close textual analysis of poetry political tracts parliamentary records and nonliterary genealogies Familial Forms offers a fresh understanding of the seventeenth century politics of genealogy It also provides new answers to long standing critical questions about the poetic form of canonical works such as Paradise Lost and Absalom and Achitophel and illuminates the political significance of newly canonical works by women writers including Aemilia Lanyer's Salve Deus Rex Judaeorum Hutchinson's Order and Disorder and Astell's A Serious Proposal to the Ladies Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Genesis of Form Mark Verstockt, 1987
