The Gates of Morning Henry de Vere Stacpoole,1929 The Gates Of Morning H De Vere Stacpoole,2025-03 The Gates of Morning takes place on the isolated islands of Karolin and Palm Tree where the central figure is a man regarded as a divine leader by the islanders The story unfolds against a backdrop of impending conflict and the clash between the primal nature of the tribes and the forces of civilization encroaching upon their way of life The protagonist grapples with the responsibilities of leadership facing both internal and external challenges as well as the growing tension of war The narrative delves into the complexities of identity as the protagonist reflects on his past and contemplates his role within the community Alongside him is a deep romantic relationship which adds a layer of personal struggle to the broader societal issues As external threats loom on the horizon the protagonist must navigate his role as a protector struggling with the tribal dynamics and the difficult decisions that accompany leadership This captivating tale brings to light the inner workings of tribal life the fragility of peace and the emotional weight of guiding a people through adversity The Gates of Morning Phyllis Hastings,1973-01-01

The Gates of Morning and two more stories H. De Vere Stacpoole,2022-04-06 Excerpt from Gates of the Morning Dick standing on a ledge of coral cast his eyes to the South Behind him the breakers of the outer sea thundered and the spindrift scattered on the wind before him stretched an ocean calm as a lake infinite blue and flown about by the fishing gulls the lagoon of Karolin Clipped by its forty mile ring of coral this great pond was a sea in itself a sea of storm in heavy winds a lake of azure in light airs and it was his he who had landed here only yesterday Women children youths all the tribe to be seen busy along the beach in the blazing sun fishing with nets playing their games or working on the paraka patches all were his people His were the canoes drawn up on the sand and his the empty houses where the war canoes had once rested on their rollers Then as he cast his eyes from the lagoon to the canoe houses his brow contracted and turning his back to the lagoon he stood facing the breakers on the outer beach and the northern sea Away there beyond the sea line invisible lay Palm Tree an island beautiful as a dream yet swarming with devils Little Tari the son of Le Taioi the net maker sitting on the coral close by looked up at him Tari knew little of life but he knew that all the men of Karolin swept away by war had left the women and the boys and the children like himself defenceless and without a man or leader Then yesterday from the northern sea in a strange boat and with Katafa the girl who had been blown to sea years ago when out fishing this strange new figure had come sent by the gods so the women said to be their chief and ruler The child knew nothing of whom the gods might be nor did he care alone now with this wonderful new person and out of earshot of his mother he put the question direct with all the simplicity of childhood      The gates of prayer: a book of private devotions by the author of 'Morning and night watches'. Gates,John Ross
