The Gender Of Democracy Citizenship And Gendered Subjectivity:

The Gender of Democracy Maro Pantelidou Maloutas,2007-05-07 As developments in the European Union and elsewhere make the re examination of citizenship a pressing issue this book reflects on the persisting masculine character of contemporary democracy and the measures taken in the EU to combat it Combining a theoretical approach with a specific critique of EU gender policy The Gender of Democracy argues that substantial democracy as a social project cannot co exist with the existing system of gender relations which are inherently dichotomous and thus demarcate social categories of superior and inferior status Drawing on utopian thought Maro Pantelidou Maloutas proposes a re examination of the notion of the gendered subject and a revision of the dominant perceptions of the relations between sex sexuality and gender The book contains a critique of specific EU gender policies and shows how in seeking to do away with gender inequality simply formulating policies that are pro women is not enough In order to approach democracy s emancipatory component far reaching policies which deconstruct rather than modernize gender relations are needed

The Cultural Politics of Female

Sexuality in South Africa Henriette Gunkel,2010-01-21 Sexual identity has emerged into the national discourse of post apartheid South Africa bringing the subject of rights and the question of gender relations and cultural authenticity into the focus of the nation state s politics This book is a fascinating reflection on the effects of these discourses on non normative modes of sexuality and intimacy and on the country more generally While in 1996 South Africa became the first country in the world that explicitly incorporated lesbian and gay rights within a Bill of Rights much of the country has continued to see homosexuality as un African Henriette Gunkel examines how colonialism and apartheid have historically shaped constructions of gender and sexuality and how these concepts have not only been re introduced and shaped by understandings of homosexuality as un African but also by the post apartheid constitution and continued discourse within the nation

Intimate Citizenships Elzbieta H. Oleksy,2009-03-23 With a focus on gender and sexuality studies this edited collection documents how people s most private decisions and practices are intertwined with public institutions and state policies

Feminist Ethics and the Politics of Love Feminist Review Collective,1998 Ethics and love are examined in different situations the contradictions of feminism in Imperial Japan the role of women in miners struggles in the UK and the contemporary politics of abortion in Ireland

International Perspectives on Citizenship, Education and Religious Diversity Robert Jackson,2003-09-02 Citizenship is high on the agenda of education systems in many of the world s democracies As yet however discussions of citizenship education have neglected issues of religious diversity and how the study of religions can contribute to our understanding of citizenship International Perspectives on Citizenship Education and Religious Diversity brings together an international range of contributions from religious studies scholars and educators specialising in the study of religions. Together these illustrate and explore the key questions for educational theory and pedagogy raised by drawing issues of religious diversity into citizenship education. The chapters address and extend debates over the nature of citizenship in late modernity highlighting local and global dimensions of citizenship in relation to issues of national, religious, ethnic and cultural identity. As well as emphasising the role religious education has to play in citizenship education this book also covers wider issues such as state supported faith schools and cultural diversity in relation to common citizenship. The authors argue that critical yet reflective approaches to religious education have a distinctive and valuable contribution to make to citizenship education. Issues addressed within the study of religions are related to new forms of global and cultural citizenship as well as citizenship within the nation state. Ultimately this stimulating and original collection highlights the challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning about religion, religions and religious diversity within an inclusive educational practice.

Multiple Meanings of Gender Equality Mieke Verloo, 2007 This book aims to map the diversity of meanings of gender equality across Europe and reflects on the contested concept of gender equality. In its exploration of the diverse meanings of gender equality it not only takes into account the existence of different visions of gender equality and the way in which different political and theoretical debates crosscut these visions but also reflects upon the geographical contexts in which visions and debates over gender equality are located. The contextual locations where these visions and debates take place include the European Union and member states such as Austria, the Netherlands, Hungary, Slovenia, Greece and Spain. In all of these settings the different meanings of gender equality are explored comparatively in relation to the issues of family policies, domestic violence and gender inequality in politics while specific national contexts discuss the issues of prostitution, Austria, Slovenia, migration, the Netherlands, homosexual rights, Spain and antidiscrimination, Hungary. The multiple meanings of gender equality are studied.
