Shaver,2017-10-13 This volume shows how attachment theory which initially focused on child development is now being used to elucidate social functioning across the lifespan In Fraud We Trust Wes Henricksen,2024-11-15 Telling lies and falling for them is one of the things that makes us human The vast majority of these falsehoods are harmless and perfectly legal But when someone deceives another for material gain or profit inflicting injury in the process we give this kind of lie a special label fraud Most people are familiar with the concept and understand that fraud is prohibited by law What many fail to appreciate however is that the law does not treat all frauds equally If you defraud an individual you might end up in prison On the other hand if you defraud millions of people what Wes Henricksen calls fraud on the public you might end up wealthy or powerful or even get elected president In a perverse sense the bigger the fraud the more likely it is protected by the First Amendment and therefore legal As a result many of the largest and most destructive fraud schemes are allowed encouraged and richly rewarded Examples of fraud on the public are everywhere The fossil fuel industry long used PR firms and lobbyists to spread disinformation about oil s role in climate change Sugar companies misled the public about the dangers of high fructose corn syrup redirecting the public s attention to fat Cigarette manufacturers famously lied about the risks of tobacco and opioid makers lied about the effects of the drug Social media influencers and fringe media outlets promoted false claims about the COVID 19 pandemic being a government hoax Others claimed that vaccines were part of a sinister plot Politicians on both sides of the aisle lie with such regularity that people have become deeply cynical about whether to believe anything they say Henricksen shows that large scale fraud is carried out for many reasons beyond financial profit including political gain the prevention of justice and the falsification of history In addition to exposing the depths of the problem Henricksen gives readers a way forward He proposes we call these massive deceit campaigns by their proper name that we de weaponize the First Amendment which was never meant to shield swindlers and that we enact new laws that protect the public from fraud By revealing for the first time the root legal cause of the misinformation crisis and presenting novel solutions In Fraud We Trust speaks to the present moment as it offers answers for the future The Spectator Morley,1891 Humans in

The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
