Successful Reading Assessments and Interventions for Struggling Readers Deborah Ann Jensen, Jennifer A. Tuten, 2012-11-28 Each struggling reader has a unique combination of strengths and areas that require targeted instruction Through their work with teachers and children in an after school tutoring program the authors have identified six types of struggling readers and offer here suggestions for assessment and instruction for each type The book imparts lessons learned from the tutoring program that are applicable to the classroom and beyond suggesting how teachers can reach out to and involve parents caregivers and families

Story Times Good Enough to Eat! Melissa Rossetti Folini, 2010-01-22 Learning and fun go hand in hand with these thematically organized story time programs that are linked to adorable edible crafts There are kids cookbooks and there are books with story time suggestions but no book has combined the two until now Story Times Good Enough to Eat Thematic Programs with Edible Story Crafts brings these elements together in programs that will engage kids and make every story time special Both a manual and a recipe book Story Times Good Enough to Eat offers thematic programs for major holidays and seasons and includes programs on popular animals and other themes as well It is designed to educate children by having them listen to the story then reinforcing the lessons of the story by creating an edible craft to go along with it Every theme in the book includes a suggested titles list a brief overview of the program and a complete recipe and instructions for making the corresponding snack craft from yummy school bus cupcakes to mouth watering sugar cookie sombreros for Cinco de Mayo
