The story's plot revolves around a giant who builds a wall to keep children out of his garden but learns compassion from the innocence of the children. The short story contains significant religious imagery. The Selfish Giant owns a beautiful garden which has 12 peach trees and lovely fragrant flowers in which children love to play after returning from the school. The Giant put a notice board: TRESPASSERS WILL BE PROSECUTED. The garden falls into perpetual winter. One day the giant is awakened by a linnet and discovers that spring has returned to the garden as the children have found a way in through a gap in the wall.
