The Gilded Lily Deborah Swift,2017-05 Beauty is skin deep Blood runs deeper Winter 1661 In her short life Sadie Appleby has never left rural Westmorland But one night she is rudely awoken by her older and bolder sister Ella She has robbed her employer and is on the run Together the girls flee their home and head for London hoping to lose themselves in the teeming city But the dead man s relatives are in pursuit and soon a game of cat and mouse ensues amongst the freezing warren that is London in winter Ella is soon seduced by the glitter and glamour of city life and sets her sights on the flamboyant man about town Jay Whitgift owner of a beauty parlour for the wives of the London gentry But nothing in the capital is what it seems least of all Jay Whitgift Soon a rift has formed between Ella and Sadie and the sisters are threatened by a menace more sinister than even the law Set in a brilliantly realised Restoration London The Gilded Lily is a novel about beauty and desire about the stories we tell ourselves and about how being a sister can be both a burden and a saving grace It s hard to say why you find a novel unputdownable but I ve just spent about 4 hours curled up with the second half and there was no way I was not going to finish it today The story line like a meandering river was full of unexpected twists and turns which enchanted me and made it very hard to put down Brilliant a cracking good read couldn t put it down exciting from beginning to end the author really brought the characters to life I enjoyed this one particularly as it has a different and engaging storyline It was another book I couldn t put down read in a day and enjoyed the characters and storyline immensely

Leon Doyle,2012-03 You can take the boy out of the country but you can t take the country out of the boy For Ted Shannon growing up in the bayou bottom backwoods of Arkansas was like growing up in a storybook It was his paradise and he couldn t imagine living anywhere else So when his family moved into town his young life was changed forever Ted felt lost in so many ways Like a wild animal trapped in a zoo Ted roamed through his new life without direction confidence or the security of familiar surroundings and ways Slowly he adapted to his new world and tried his best to accept this new reality And through it all he vowed to never betray the code of the backwoods God country family and finally self the code he had been reared to honor He believed in the Good Book and really tried to live a good life but the temptations of the big city were more than this country boy could handle He wrestled with God s command to take just one mate for all of his life and despite his most honorable intentions found that circumstances just kept getting in the way again and again and again He really meant to honor his wedding vows and was stunned when he learned that his wife couldn t return the courtesy Apparently circumstances got in her way too Now Ted has to fight to find the equilibrium between the good life and the life his new world has to offer
