The Gold Cadillac:

The Gold Cadillac Mildred D. Taylor, 1998-02-01 Another powerful story in the Logan Family Saga and companion to Mildred D Taylor's Newbery Award winning Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry A drive South becomes dangerous for Lois and her family Lois and Wilma are proud of their father's brand new gold Cadillac and excited that the family will be driving it all the way from Ohio to Mississippi But as they travel deeper into the rural South there are no admiring glances for the shiny new car only suspicion and anger for the black man behind the wheel For the first time in their lives Lois and her sister know what it's like to feel scared because of the color of their skin A personal poignant look at a black child's first experience with institutional racism The New York Times Making Race Visible Stuart Greene, Dawn Abt-Perkins, 2003-10-26 Grounded in classroom experiences this volume opens new territory on a critical but rarely addressed topic the intersection of race with literacy research and practice Mildred Taylor Gillian Houghton, 2004-12-15 Presents the life and work of the African American young adult author who served in the Peace Corps in Ethiopia and who went on to win the 1977 Newbery Award for her work Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry The Gold Cadillac Group Set Booksource, The, 2009-08-01 Young Adult Fiction by African American Writers, 1968-1993 Deborah Kutenplon, Ellen Olmstead, 2014-04-08 Comprehensive and up to date The first contemporary publication to go beyond examining broad themes and trends in the field this timely volume looks closely at specific authors and texts The book is comprehensive and as current as possible covering works by African American authors for young adults published between 1968-1993 some 200 titles by close to 50 writers In addition to established authors and bestselling titles the coverage includes material overlooked by previous studies such as works from small presses and talented new authors Guidelines for evaluation An extensive introduction reviews important milestones in this body of literature and analyzes noteworthy bibliographical and critical publications about such writing It includes suggested guidelines for evaluating a work in terms of its direct and indirect treatment of such issues as race gender class ability age sexuality and sexual orientation The book also offers specific guidance for determining the appropriate readership for a work with regard to age and gender Unusually extensive annotations The main body of the book is an annotated bibliography alphabetical by author with the works arranged chronologically by publication date The annotations are much more extensive than those in other bibliographies Each annotation reads more like a full length book review and is from one to two pages long and explores themes plot and character development evaluates the quality of the writing judges the handling of issues of race class and gender and provides a readership recommendation Written in accessible language this user friendly book presents a wide range of factual information evaluations and analyses It is a valuable tool for all teachers librarians counselors and young adults An Ancient Path Paul R. Fleischman, 2012-12-05 A collection of talks given by Dr Paul Fleischman on Vipassana meditation as taught by S N Goenka these selections explore subjects such as mental health mindfulness and cultivating inner peace They were given to diverse audiences across the world in locations including Boston

Madrid Vienna and Dublin These talks are a valuable introduction to Vipassana meditation as well as an inspiring resource for those who are already practicing The Common Core in Action Deborah J. Jesseman, 2015-06-19 This book addresses Common Core State Standard curriculum resources to assist the school librarian in collaborating with classroom teachers Librarians are being asked to understand the Common Core State Standards CCSS and their implications to programming and instruction as well as to collection development planning Using lesson plans originally published in School Library Monthly this title builds upon them adding many additional plans that address CCSS issues The plans will help you implement the standards and can also be used as stepping stones to facilitate planning conversations and collaboration with teachers to co teach lessons correlated with the standards The book begins with an overview of the CCSS what they are how are they different from the content standards and what the implications are for schools where the state has adopted them including what the CCSS mean for collection development It then goes on to explore the opportunities the CCSS present for the school librarian looking at how you can become a leader in employing the process The majority of the book is devoted to reproducible lesson plans organized by curricular area or topic and grade level for ease of use The Gold Cadillac [by] Mildred D.
