Orality, Form, and Lyric Unity Beverley Nadin, 2023-01-25 Orality Form and Lyric Unity examines the poetic works of Michael Donaghy and Don Paterson and their advancement of a poetics of sound and sense Observing Donaghy's critical perspectives on orality tradition and memory and Don Paterson's systems of collective relation and lyric unity this volume explores the intellectual curiosity of both poets from the classical to the contemporary in relation to music literature philosophy scientific thought and the rituals and austerities of the transcendent This text also explores the tensions occupying their work between craft and spontaneity and between the intellect and intuition that arise from a fundamental respect for form as the poet's guiding principle Orality Form and Lyric Unity exposes persuasive rhetoric and pursues a nuanced understanding of the enigmatic complexity of poetic language and its critical context This volume interrogates valuable insights into form language and poetics and clarifies and reframes these with a focus on the creative process for readers interested in poetry and the practical and critical perspectives of these poets Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T.,2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima,2012-07-10 In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies
