Talking In Tranquility Interviews With Ted Berrigan:

Talking in Tranquility Ted Berrigan, 1991 Speaking with George Oppen Richard Swigg, 2014-01-10 Seventeen interviews with George and Mary Oppen conducted between 1968 and 1987 are here brought together for the first time Two are fresh discoveries while re-audited recordings of other interviews have given a new authoritative accuracy to the text These conversations provide a unique account of a major American poet's evolution through the Depression war exile and a return to poetry after two decades of silence They span Oppen's early years as an Objectivist his assessments of such as Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams and his views on the merits of his later contemporaries Allen Ginsberg Jerome Rothenburg and others Above all it is Oppen's detailed commentary on his own writing and his explanations of how individual poems unfold which gives special importance to these new collected interviews Affect, Psychoanalysis, and American Poetry John Steen, 2018-07-12 Poetry has often been defined by its closure its condensation of meaning and value into discrete self-referential textual objects Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry challenges the dominant metaphor of poetic containers by turning to recent poetic texts that represent the contagious and uncontainable feelings of anxiety grief shame and rage From modernists Wallace Stevens to mid-century poets Randall Jarrell Robert Creeley and Ted Berrigan and finally to contemporary practitioners Aaron Kunin and Claudia Rankine John Steen argues that new poetic techniques arise from the poetic productivity of negative affects and that a new model of poetic value can be found in poems that are instead of containers permeable social spaces of intimacy attachment and withdrawal Drawing from object relations psychoanalysis queer theory and affect theory Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry finds poetry's singularity in its unique capacity to represent anew the transmissible relational and uncontainable valences of feeling that structure and destabilize social life

All Poets Welcome Daniel Kane, 2003-03-26 This landmark book together with its accompanying CD captures the heady excitement of the vibrant irreverent poetry scene of New York's Lower East Side in the 1960s Drawing from personal interviews with many of the participants from unpublished letters and from rare sound recordings Daniel Kane brings together for the first time the people political events and poetic roots that coalesced into a highly influential community From the poetry reading venues of the early sixties such as those at the Les Deux M'gots and Le Metro coffeehouses to The Poetry Project at St Mark's Church a vital forum for poets to this day Kane traces the history of this literary renaissance showing how it was born from a culture of publicly performed poetry The Lower East Side in the sixties proved foundational in American verse culture a defining era for the artistic and political avant-garde The voices and works of John Ashbery Amiri Baraka Charles Bernstein Bill Berkson Ted Berrigan Kenneth Koch Bernadette Mayer Ron Padgett Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn Frank O'Hara and many others enliven these pages and the thirty-five track CD includes recordings of several of the poets reading from their work in the sixties and seventies The Lower East Side's cafes coffeehouses and salons brought together poets of various aesthetic sensibilities including writers associated with the so-called New York School Beats Black

Mountain Deep Image San Francisco Renaissance Umbra and others Kane shows that the significance for literary history of this loosely defined community of poets and artists lies in part in its reclaiming an orally centered poetic tradition adapted specifically to open up the possibilities for an aesthetically daring playful poetics and a politics of joy and resistance
