Tangier Nights:

Streetwise Mohamed Choukri, 2012-08-20 In his early twenties Choukri takes the momentous decision to learn to read and write and joins a children's class at the local state school in Tangier When not at school he hangs out in cafés drinking and smoking kif Some nights he sleeps in a doss house but mostly he sleeps in mosques or on the street He befriends many lowlife characters while the café habitués help him with his Arabic and the local prostitutes take him home providing some human solace Choukri's determination to educate himself and his compassion for those with whom he shares his life on the streets is heartfelt and inspirational As a writer he is in an enviable position though he paid a high price for it in suffering Paul Bowles Choukri's irrepressible ultimately indomitable spirit is most touching and human The Independent Choukri is a powerful teller of stories His telling of oppression is vivid and remarkable Morning Star The Marine Corps Gazette, 1976
