The Carole: A Study of a Medieval Dance Robert Mullally, 2017-07-05 The carole was the principal social dance in France and England from c 1100 to c 1400 and was frequently mentioned in French and English medieval literature. However it has been widely misunderstood by contributors in recent citations in dictionaries and reference books both linguistic and musical. The carole was performed by all classes of society kings and nobles shepherds and servant girls. It is described as taking place both indoors and outdoors. Its central position in the life of the people is underlined by references not only in what we might call fictional texts but also in historical or quasi historical writings in moral treatises and even in a work on astronomy. Dr Robert Mullally's focus is very much on details relevant to the history choreography and performance of the dance as revealed in the primary sources. This methodology involves attempting to isolate the term carole from other dance terms not only in French but also in other languages. Mullally's groundbreaking study establishes all the characteristics of this dance etymological choreographical lyrical musical and iconographical.

Dance as Third Space Heike Walz, 2021-12-06 Dance plays an important role in many religious traditions in rites of passage processions healing rituals or festivals. But it is also controversial especially in Christianity. Colonial European Christian discourses tend to separate dance from religion's and spirituality. This volume explores dance as Third Space following Homi Bhabha's postcolonial metaphor. The Inter Dance approach combines interdisciplinary theoretical considerations with case studies. International experts examine dance controversies and discourses from the early church to World Christianity as well as in Hasidic Judaism Greek mysteries Islamic Sufism West African Togolese religions and Afro Brazilian Umbanda. Christian dance theologies are unfolded and the boundary crossing potential of dance in interreligious and intercultural encounters is explored. The volume breaks new ground in how dance as ephemeral performative art embodied thought and gendered discourse can transform studies of religion.

Dotawo Dotawo Journal, 2019-02-05 Dotawo A Journal of Nubian Studies offers a platform in which the old meets the new in which archaeological papyrological and philological research into Meroitic Old Nubian Coptic Greek and Arabic sources confront current investigations in modern anthropology and ethnography. Nilo-Saharan linguistics and the critical and theoretical approaches of postcolonial and African studies. Dotawo gives a common home to the past present and future of one of the richest areas of research in African studies. It offers a crossroads where papyrus can meet the internet scribes meet critical thinkers and the promises of growing nations meet the accomplishments of older kingdoms. Volume 5 of Dotawo focuses on Nubian women both ancient and contemporary. Nubian women whether they were queens or commoners Christians or Muslims have always been held in high esteem by their communities. The articles in this volume of Dotawo focus on the ways in which Nubian women survive and thrive throughout the centuries.
